Homedale trounces Vandals to open SRV

Homedale High School football players bought into the program Friday night.

The Trojans put together a complete game to thrash McCall-Donnelly 33-7 in the 3A Snake River Valley conference opener for both teams at Deward Bell Stadium.

"We stressed a team effort and came together as a team," Homedale coach Thomas Thomas said. "Special teams, offense and defense did a real good job."

Until McCall-Donnelly junior quarterback Ryan Grinde ran for a 2-yard touchdown on a fourth-down play 49 seconds into the final quarter, the Trojans' defense had built a performance to rival its showing in a 28-0 defeat of Parma on Sept. 16.

There was one slight variation — senior defensive back Ricco Gonzalez, who started his first game of the season Friday for Homedale (3-2 overall, 1-0 SRV). McCall-Donnelly fell to 1-4, 0-1.

"Ricco missed the first two games and came in as a backup the last couple weeks," Thomas said. "He just earned a starting spot."

Gonzalez probably solidified his role by picking off a pair of Grinde passes.

The interceptions were part of a six takeaways for the Trojans, giving the Homedale offense great field position all night.

Starting three drives inside the Vandals' 35-yard line was just what the Trojans' beleaguered offense needed. Homedale rolled up 162 yards passing, with Trevor Krzesnik nearly doubling his season output by completing 7 of 11 passes for 120 yards and

Rimrock snaps 11-game losing streak

Senior running back Weslee Aquiso scored every point for his team Friday night as Rimrock High School's football team ended an 11-game losing streak by beating Tri-Valley in Cambridge.

Aquiso scored on a 7-yard run in the first quarter and supplied the two-point conversion to give the Raiders all the points they would need in a 14-6 1A Western Idaho Conference victory in the league opener for both teams.

Rimrock (1-3, 1-0 1A WIC) last tasted victory with a 28-14 win over Idaho City on Halloween 2003.

It was Jim Clark's first win as coach for the Raiders. Clark took over the program from Carl Voight before the start of the 2005 season.

Neither team scored in the second half Friday. Tri-Valley crept within two points with a touchdown later in the first quarter, but Aquiso struck again with a 2-yard run in the second

New Trojans boys coach emphasizes involvement

For years, Brad Hill was an outside observer when it came to the athletic tradition at Homedale High School.

But the Trojans' new boys basketball coach — who attended Kuna High School and once coached the Kavemen's girls basketball team — knows what is at the core of any smalltown athletic program.

"I want to create a family not just on the basketball team, but in Trojan athletics," he said.

Hill, who is a language arts teacher at the new Sage Valley Intermediate in the Vallivue School District, wants to encourage his athletes to tackle more than one sport. He says participation in multiple sports helps add to the overall athletic prowess of a school.

He also believes in coaches guiding athletes in more than one sport. In fact, he's upfront about his desire to help Thomas Thomas with the Trojans' football program in the future.

"It gains trust," he said. "You don't always see him as a head coach, but sometimes as an assistant coach who is a little more laid-back than you might see him in another sport."

Hill, who is finishing his coaching commitment to Matt Strong on Caldwell High's football staff this fall, is big on trust. He understands that his involvement with the Cougars and his absence from the Homedale campus will be tough obstacles to negotiate as he prepares his new team for the 2005-06 basketball season.

"If we happen to get to the (state football) playoffs, my schedule will be pretty hectic," Hill said, adding that he knows of no game-night conflicts between the football playoffs and the start of basketball season.

"The early transition will be a little difficult, especially with me not being on campus."

New HMS cross country team thrives

Feeder program achieves one of coach's goals

When Nick Schamber interviewed for the cross country coaching job at Homedale High School, one of his dreams was to create a feeder program for the team.

On Sept. 20, the Homedale School Board granted that wish, at least for this year, when it approved the creation of the Homedale Middle School cross country team.

"Our main goal in this endeavor was to introduce cross country at the middle school when students are more willing to try different activities," Schamber said.

The team competed in the Bob Firman Invitational on Sept. 24 at Eagle Island State Park and has one meet remaining against Midleton at Gilbert Lakes on Oct. 12.

"It is a win-win situation," middle school athletic director

Luci Asumendi said.

"It gives our kids at the middle school another option, and it helps build Nick's program at the high school."

Schamber took over the high school team from Troy Sullivan in August. The quest to keep the numbers up with the high school squad has been a struggle, with not enough girls to field a scoring team and a boys team marked by youth and inexperience.

The bottom line in all of this was that the costs of creating the program would be low. Schamber, who is a teacher at the middle school, oversees both programs with compensation only for the high school job. Transportation costs are the only expense, Asumendi said.

"So far, I feel it has paid off," Schamber said. "We have 12 middle school kids out, and they are pretty excited."

The boys team finished eighth in the 14-team Lake Lowell

Middleton storms past Homedale boys

Middleton erupted with four second-half goals Sept. 27 to beat Homedale 5-0 in 3A Snake River Valley conference boys soccer at Sundance Park.

“For the second half, we lost our concentration and Middleton took advantage of our lack of communication on the field,” Homedale coach David Correa said.

The visiting Vikings got on the scoreboard in the first half on a defensive error by the Trojans.

Uriel Ozuna (eight saves) and Erik Corbett (six saves) split time in goal for Homedale (3-6 overall, 3-4 SRV before Tuesday’s game against McCall-Donnelly. Results weren’t available at press time).

Correa admitted that watching the Vikings (8-3-1, 7-0) dominate in the second half left him with a helpless feeling.

“It is hard to see your team from the sidelines losing control of the game and not be able to do much,” he said. “Unlike other team sports, in soccer you cannot call a timeout to straighten up your team and to slow down the other team’s momentum.

“Thankfully, the more experienced players helped control the situation by slowing down the ball.” Middleton took a seven-game winning streak into Tuesday’s game against Fruitland.

Homedale plays host to Fruitland on Thursday then meets Ontario, Ore., in a home non-league game on Tuesday and ends the season next Tuesday with a 5 p.m. game at Sundance Park against Weiser.

Antelopes hold on to remain unbeaten

The showdown is set. Adrian High School’s football team held on to beat Imbler on the road Friday night 38-30 to remain perfect in Old Oregon League play.

Now, the Antelopes (4-0 overall, 2-0 OOL) return home to Ward Field at 7 p.m. Friday to take on Powder Valley in a Homecoming matchup pitting two teams unbeaten in OOL play.

“It’s homecoming, and I’m not looking forward to that,” Adrian coach Gene Mills said. “It’s a horrible week, and the kids are rarely focused.”

For more than three quarters Friday, the Antelopes were as focused as a team could get. Kade Thomas fired a 40-yard touchdown pass to Brett Buchholz to establish Adrian’s 16-6 halftime lead.

The Antelopes’ defense got opportunistic in the second half. Chris Schumacher returned an interception for a touchdown.

A senior defensive lineman, Schumacher had dropped back into a linebacker role on a line stunt moments before stepping in front of the pass from Imbler quarterback Todd Thompson.

“He’s one of most knowledgeable football players,” Mills said of the native of Germany. “He does a great job.”

In the fourth quarter, Buchholz raced 47 yards after picking off Thompson.

Derek Rios led the Antelopes with 116 yards rushing, including a 65-yard run that put Adrian ahead 38-12 early in the fourth quarter.

But the Antelopes soon lost their focus in the final period. A 3-hour bus ride and a stiff wind tend to trigger letdowns.

There were other factors, too. Imbler lost their star running back, Mitch Meyers, to an injury in the fourth quarter, which Mills suggests may have contributed to Adrian easing up. Meyers had pulled Imbler to within two points, 8-6, with a 65-yard run in the second quarter. He also scored on a 22-yard jaunt in the third.

“We were up 38-12, and things looked pretty good,” Mills said. “Their best kid left the game, and I thought we were in pretty good control.”

Adrian committed key penalties and couldn’t handle the wind, though, giving Imbler great field position throughout the quarter. Thompson took control of the offense and rushed for three Imbler touchdowns in the fourth quarter.

overall and 2-1 in the Southern Idaho Conference 4A football standings. The first Homedale basketball game comes Dec. 1 at home against Parma, well after the end of the football season. Practice for the Trojans can begin on Nov. 11, which is the Friday of the first round of the state football playoffs.

While schedule adjustments seem unlikely, Hill will have to get used to a few things as he moves from the girls game to the boys game and takes over the helm of a program for the first time since 1996.

He coached Kuna’s girls team to a pair of state tournament appearances between 1991 and 1996, finishing fourth at State in 1992.

His Kavemen teams finished no lower than third in the league standings any year he was there.

Hill moved on to coach junior varsity basketball for both the boys and girls programs at Skyview

High School in Nampa. His most recent basketball coaching gig was the freshman boys job at Caldwell last season.

“I’ve been wanting to get another head-coaching job,” Hill said.

“That’s why I went back to school and finished my degree.”

The time away from the administrative side of running a program, and being involved with a varsity team on the court, doesn’t worry the coach.

“Basketball is basketball,” he said. “My philosophy is we’re going to be fundamentally sound and execute as well as we can.

“A few things have changed (since his days as Kuna’s leader). The kids want to shoot the 3 more.”

There is one thing that time has not tempered for Hill. He craves to see intensity and hustle on the court.

”I’m energetic. I like to get after it,” he said. “I think my philosophy is getting the kids to play hard.”

Huskies tune up for road with win

Nicole Gelinas served 10 aces Thursday night as Marsing High School kicked off a four-match season-ending road swing with a five-game volleyball win over Melba.

The 25-27, 25-20, 25-17, 22-25, 15-11 2A Western Idaho Conference victory allowed the Huskies to take a 3-2 league record into Tuesday's road match against New Plymouth.

Tuesday's results weren't available at press time.

Marsing continues in its road warrior role Thursday by visiting Nampa Christian for a 7 p.m. match. The regular season ends at Parma on Oct. 13.

Last Thursday against Melba, Gelinas — a 5-foot-6 senior setter — dominated from the service line. More than half of her 18 service points were collected via the ace.

She was key in the Huskies' Game 5 comeback to notch the win.

"We got down and had to battle back," Marsing coach Loma Bittick said. "We made a six-point run with Nicole serving that sparked us.

"It was a good test of our competitiveness."

The Huskies' performance from the service line created several standouts, including 5-4 senior Angela Martinez, who served four aces as part of her seven service points, and 5-6 junior Jennifer Pfeifer, who had eight points.

"Our serving kept us in this game," Bittick said. "Melba is much improved, and we didn't play as consistent defensively as we have been."

M.J. Usabel paced the Huskies (7-3 overall) with seven kills and two blocks.

M.J. Usabel, a 5-9 senior, served 22 points and ripped nine kills to spark a 27-25, 13-25, 25-21, 25-16 victory over the Panthers.

Nicole Gelinas set eight assists and served seven points. Breeana Chadez had eight kills and six service points.

Mollee Nielsen collected seven digs, while Angela Martinez served 12 points.

"Each of the seniors made a contribution," Marsing coach Loma Bittick said.

Michelle Baltzor served for 14 points Wednesday as the Jordan Valley High School volleyball team swept McDermitt, Nev., in smashing fashion.

Bailey Kershner added 11 service points in a 25-12, 25-14, 25-18 non-league victory. Kershner also had 18 assists.

"The girls have worked real hard and are doing very well this year. Although, we have rotated and girls played positions they are not used to playing, they pulled it off," coach Jacque Naegle said. "We played McDermitt much better than we did early this year and McDermitt has improved also from that first game."

Lauren Cuvelier had 12 kills and Michelle Elsner added three.

JV volleyball

The Mustangs' youngest junior varsity team, its roster depleted to just eight players, suffered its first loss of the season, 24-26, 25-15, 15-10, against McDermitt.

Luisa Lowry and Tessa Matteri each had six serving points, followed by Emma Johnson with five. Lowry also had two kills.

Athena Beckwith led in kills with three, and Kayla Cuvelier backed her up with two.

Catie Kershner and Elisa Eiguren each had five assists to aid the Mustangs in their rally.

Communication breakdowns contributed to the defeat, but Naegle was encouraged nonetheless.

"They kept working hard though and that's encouraging seeing that they didn't stop," the coach said.

The second JV team worked hard on defense in the past week and focused especially on calling the ball. It worked because the Mustangs collected a 25-13, 25-21 victory.

"Our communication was still lacking, but we brought it together enough to pull out a win," said sophomore Kelsey Prescott, who contributed three kills to the effort.

Jesse White led the way with 10 serving points, followed by Tina Stanford with nine.

Dinah Powers had 3 kills. Tina Stanford and Elisa Eiguren had three assists each.

Defense keys JV's first win in football

Jordan Valley High School's football team traveled 5 hours to get its first win of the season Friday.

Junior Jerry Wroten scored two touchdowns as the Mustangs beat Mitchell/Dayville/Monument 12-6 in a Tri-Co League game.

"Everyone did great," Jordan Valley quarterback Alek Quintero said.

"We held Jerry Wroten scoring, and then scored ourselves. Our defense was wicked good."

In the third quarter, the Mustangs picked up the momentum and ran with it.

Mitchell/Dayville/Monument scored its only touchdown, but the Mustangs prevented the extra point.

The fourth quarter brought on a similar situation. Jordan Valley's defense came up with two quarterback sacks with Mitchell/Dayville/Monument in the red zone looking to score. A third-down conversion failed, and the Mustangs took over and ran the time out.

Quintero sparked the defense with two interceptions. Timmy Eiguren intercepted a pass, while Zac Fillmore had three blocked passes. Koehl Trautvman had a sack.

"The offensive live did a much better job blocking, which allowed us to run the ball effectively," Jordan Valley coach vJeremy Chamberlain said.

"Our defense kicked in and shut down M/D/M's offense as well."

Jordan Valley returns home Friday for a 7 p.m. game against Spray.

The contest serves at the Mustangs' homecoming game.

Pirates take advantage of timid Trojans

Freshman scores only goal for Homedale girls in loss at home

Hannah Johnson was pretty ticked off Thursday, and the only way to soothe the Homedale High School girls soccer player was to start her in goal against the terror of the Snake River Valley conference.

“Hannah has been in goal a few times. But she wanted to start in goal because she was mad, and she wanted a piece of the action,” Homedale coach Lesa Folwell said after Payette posted a 10-1 victory in the Trojans’ home finale.

Homedale fell to 0-8 overall, 0-7 in the SRV.

Johnson faced down Payette in goal, side-stepping the frustration of miscommunication in the Trojans’ backfield to stop four shots in the first 40 minutes.

Hannah Johnson

Payette owned a 5-0 lead at halftime, but needed 15 minutes to finally break through against Homedale. In the two teams’ first meeting, which the Pirates won 17-1, Payette scored twice in the first two minutes, Folwell said.

“That makes me feel awesome,” the coach said of her team’s overall defensive effort. “I’m so proud of them. They really put their heads up high and went for it and gave it their all.”

A few of the goals scored in the first half came when Johnson’s teammates wouldn’t get out of the way to let her take control of the situation.

“That’s a problem we have struggled with all season — listening to the goalie,” Folwell said.

But Folwell also admitted her team may have been concentrating too much on playing defense, which included a new man-to-man scheme that the Trojans were using in a game situation for only the second time.

“I think we were so afraid we

BreAnn Rodriguez

Senior captain scores in loss to Vikings

A little tweak of the lineup gave senior captain BreAnn Rodriguez something to be proud of Tuesday in Homedale High School’s 7-1 Snake River Valley conference girls soccer loss to Middleton.

Coach Lesa Folwell moved Rodriguez up to forward from her usual defender spot in the second half on the Vikings’ field.

Rodriguez scored the Trojans’ only goal, taking a pass from Kendall Rupp down the line to punch it in.

“She was very excited to score,” Folwell said. “It’s awesome she did so. She’s a senior and now has something to brag about — being a defender and scoring.”

Folwell said the Vikings players moved fast on the pitch, running out to a 4-0 halftime lead.

were going to lose,” Folwell said, adding that the 17-1 loss still had some psychological effects. “We just stuck back and didn’t pull up and take the ball like we should have.”

The Trojans’ timid nature spilled over to offense, too. On

Powerful kick

Freshman Kendall Rupp rips a free kick downfield during Homedale’s 10-1 loss to Payette at Sundance Park on Thursday. numerous occasions, Payette defenders stepped in front of a Homedale player on the offensive and took the ball away with little resistance.

Johnson, however, moved to the forward position in the second half and teamed with BreAnn Rodriguez to try to put an end to the shyness.

“We put Hannah as a forward, and she and BreAnn said, ‘We’re going to take it in. Let’s move it up,’” Folwell said.

That determination sparked a few more thrusts into Payette’s defensive zone in the second half.

And it produced the Trojans’ only goal in the game. It was Johnson, who dribbled hard along the end line next to the goal then hit an impossibly narrow shot that glanced off the fingertips of Payette goalie Bryn Elliott and landed in the far corner of the net.

“That was awesome,” Folwell said of Johnson’s score 29 minutes after halftime. “It was a great angle.”

“It was almost unstoppable, which was very good for us.”

Unstoppable can sum up Payette this season, too. The Pirates improved to 7-0 in the SRV and 11-0 overall. Coach Vonnie Paul’s squad is merciless against its opponents, and that swagger is reflected in the slogan emblazoned across the sheet of paper that contains the team’s roster.

“Go big or go home.”

All clichés aside, the Pirates rolled into Homedale after whitewashing Fruitland 14-0 on Sept. 27. Payette, which played Ontario in a non-conference game Saturday and faced SRV foe Weiser on Tuesday, outscored the Grizzlies 24-0 in two games this year.

“She backed off a little today,” Folwell said of Paul’s aggressive coaching style. “That was nice.”

Thursday’s game was the sixth double-digit goal performance for Payette, but the Trojans can take pride in the fact that only one other team has scored more than once against the Pirates this year. Weiser was an 8-2 loser on Sept. 15.

Considering Payette had surrendered only six goals in 11 games before the weekend, there’s something else Homedale can cling to.

“At least we didn’t get shut out,” Folwell said.

√ HMS

Invitational. The Trojans were the second-best Snake River Valley conference team at the meet, with fellow league member Middleton winning the whole ball of wax.

The 12-member roster includes nine boys and three girls. Five runners are required to field a team that can be scored at a meet.

Asumendi said the team is open to any seventh- or eighth-grader.

A four-meet schedule was set for the team when the program was approved. Debbie Turner, another middle school teacher, has volunteered to help Schamber with the team.

“This is a sport that has no boundaries because every kid can run and, in some way, benefit from doing so,” Asumendi said.

“It has given some kids an identity that they otherwise might not have and more of a connection to the middle school — and to our athletic program.”

Before cross country, the only fall sports options for prospective HMS athletes have been football and volleyball.

“I feel that we are finding a niche for some students who want to participate in athletics but did not find football or volleyball as something they would necessarily enjoy,” said Schamber.

The coach added that Asumendi, the school board and Homedale schools superintendent Tim Rosandick were “very supportive” of the proposal.

Schamber and Asumendi both said that the program was approved for only one year initially to gauge interest among the athletes.

“If this becomes a permanent sport in the middle school, this will increase the numbers of participants as they enter high school and (they will) have a better understanding of what the sport is all about,” Schamber said.

“This is a very positive sport. Everyone participates, and you can always find something positive out of the experience.”

Ready for a return

New Plymouth downs Trojans

A poor offensive showing doomed Homedale High School in a 25-15, 25-15, 25-20 3A Snake River Valley conference volleyball loss to visiting New Plymouth on Sept. 26. “We couldn’t organize ourselves to play the ball effectively,” Homedale coach Maleta Henry said. Mandy Brasher led the Trojans with six blocks. She also had one kill. Jessica Mooney added a kill and four blocks, while Sarah Cline chipped in with two kills and three blocks.

√ Trojans

touchdowns to Bryan Martinat and Garrett Sweet. Tyler Christofferson held up his end at quarterback, too. His 5-yard improvised scramble, capped by an all-out lunge to the pylon, gave Homedale a 14-0 lead with 8 minutes, 22 seconds left in the first half. “That was completely him,” Thomas said of the senior’s inspirational scoring play. “It was a broken play,” Christofferson said. “Our wing and our tailback ran smack into each other, and then I just pulled it and got around the side. “Their end crashed in, and I just headed for the end zone.” Christofferson’s dash seemed to ignite the Trojans. But it was Larry Wass who put his quarterback in such a fantastic position. Wass blocked Augusto Sussi’s attempted punt and recovered the ball on the 5. Christofferson scored one play later. After the defense allowed just one yard on McCall-Donnelly’s next possession, Homedale needed only three plays to score again. Christofferson hit Zach Lootens for a 31-yard pass, then Ryan Johnson broke free for a 34-yard TD sprint. “It is nice,” Christofferson said of the field position the defense handed the Trojans’ offense all night. “But we still got to play hard and we got to play tough.” On the Trojans’ next possession, Martinat sped 45 yards with a pass from Krzesnik for another score. Martinat also rambled 50 yards on a counter play for a TD. “We were able to find ourselves on offense,” Thomas said. “We were able to be a little more consistent.” Meanwhile, McCall-Donnelly had more of the same as far as its season goes. The Vandals have reached double figures in scoring this year in only their 18-8 win over Grangeville on Sept. 2. But McCall’s defense has been stingy. Friday marked the first time the Vandals had surrendered more than 16 points to a foe in 2005. Homedale held the Vandals to 115 yards offense, and 80 of those came through the air, and McCall rolled up just 25 yards offense in the first 24 minutes. The Vandals’ rushing attack was snuffed out, averaging less than a yard per carry. “The 3-5 (defensive scheme) is a very attractive, downhill defense,” Thomas said. “It makes the offense make a really quick decision or you’re going to be on your pants.” — JB

Antelopes travel rough road

Sarah McPeak racked up 14 kills Saturday afternoon as Adrian High School’s volleyball team picked up two victories in the consolation bracket of the Tri-Valley Titan Invitational in Cambridge. The Antelopes (5-4 overall) won only one game in the morning’s pool play round, but Adrian rebounded to beat Pine Eagle, Ore., 25-15, 25-13, and Meadows Valley, 25-13, 25-12, in consolation play. “I was happy with our bracket play in the afternoon,” Adrian coach Aimee Goss said. “We started to play a lot more aggressively and finished the day well.” McPeak came up with eight kills in the win over Pine Eagle, which had a difficult time with Adrian’s service game. Stephanie Hutchings served four aces, Kirsten Phillips smoked three unreturned serves, and Kat Sillonis had two aces and five assists. McPeak registered eight kills against Pine Eagle, while Paige Branstiter had five kills and Andrea Garner added four. Ryann Bowns dished nine assists. Sillonis served four more aces in beating Meadows Valley. Branstiter had a team-high five aces and eight kills. Bowns had 13 assists. In pool play, Adrian beat Tri-Valley 26-24, but lost to Horseshoe Bend (25-23) and the New Plymouth junior varsity (25-18). Branstiter collected 14 kills and served four aces in pool play. McPeak had three aces and three kills, while Sillonis had eight assists and Bowns seven. The Antelopes jump back into Old Oregon League play Friday against Powder Valley. Imbler def. Adrian Branstiter and McPeak combined for 24 kills, but the Antelopes could finish off an extraordinary fifth game in a 22-25, 25-21, 25-20, 23-25, 15-13 OOL loss on the road to Imbler on Friday. “This was another long, tough match, and I thought we had them there at the end, but just couldn’t quite put the ball down for a kill,” Goss said. McPeak had a team-high 13 kills for Adrian (1-3 OOL), and Branstiter added 11 kills, two block kills, seven digs and two aces. Sillonis and Bowns benefited from the Branstiter-McPeak duo. Sillonis had 14 assists, and Bowns added 11. Kirsten Phillips served three aces and had five digs. “I was pleased again that the girls never gave up, and eventually that will pay off as the season progresses,” Goss said.

QB injury adds to insult of Marsing loss

Marsing High School’s football season went from bad to worse three plays into Friday’s 37-0 loss to host New Plymouth, which picked up its first win of the season. Junior quarterback Miguel Quebrado suffered a twisted knee while trying to scramble away from pressure from the Pilgrims’ defense. He left the 2A Western Idaho Conference game, and his status is still up in the air for this week’s road game against surging Melba. Quebrado was replaced by Brian Smith under center, and Huskies coach Don Heller put junior varsity quarterback Sean Finley in the position during the game’s latter stages. “Brian usually gets some reps one day a week,” Heller said. “You don’t have time in high school practices to rep everybody.” The lack of practice time with the starting offense and a lack of game experience hurt both Smith and Finley. Underthrown passes led to six interceptions. New Plymouth (1-4 overall, 1-1 2A WIC) built a 31-0 lead at halftime, and kept the pressure on by continuing to throw the ball in the second half. But Marsing (1-5, 0-2) clamped down after making some defensive changes. “We made some adjustments on our defense and we shut them down,” Heller said. The Pilgrims managed only 64 yards in the second half. Heller said swelling in Quebrado’s knee had subsided by Monday, but if he can’t play Friday night, fullback Perry Gibson could be moved to starting quarterback.

HMS seventh-grade football keeps rolling

A superb effort from the offensive and defensive lines is being credited for a 28-0 shutout of Middleton by Homedale Middle School’s seventh-grade football team. The linemen, including Joseph Cortinas, Joel McCutcheon, Jonathan Stacey, Gil Lootens, Matt Taggart and Theron Perkins, helped the Trojans remain unbeaten at 3-0 after the Snake River Valley conference victory against the Vikings in Homedale. The Trojans were 3-0 before Tuesday’s home game against fellow unbeaten Payette Lakes from McCall. Homedale plays at 4:15 p.m. next Tuesday at home against Fruitland. Emilio Cuellar sparked the Trojans’ scoring against Middleton by returning an interception for a touchdown. The pass had ricocheted off the helmet of Alan Kennedy before Cuellar corralled it. Kenny Esparza had two interceptions, including one he returned 96 yards to set up another Homedale TD. Trevor Gibson picked off a pass and scored a PAT.

Eighth-grade football The host Vikings picked up a 44-20 victory against the Trojans. Homedale’s defense was spearheaded by Neil Doyle, Jeff Krasko and Chance Nelson. Reece Landa took over at quarterback after an injury to Ryan Ryska, completing clutch passes to move the Trojans down the field. But Homedale’s drives stalled. Trent Acree scored on a 3-yard sweep in the first quarter for Homedale. Alex Mereness scored TD runs of 50 and 55 yards. Eighth-grade volleyball The A team, led by Kindra Galloway, Heather Sitko and Katie Holloway, pulled off an upset of sorts Thursday when the Trojans (4-3) took down previously unbeaten Fruitland (5-1). The match was played on Homedale’s home court, and ended Fruitland’s season-opening five-match winning streak. It was a big step for the Trojans, too, who are battling in the final six matches of the season for good seeding in the district tournament. The B team lost in two games. Megan Harper, Megan Quintana and Jacy Grimm are among the players on that squad. Homedale’s two eighth-grade teams meet Ontario at home at 4:15 p.m. Tuesday. The regular-season finales come at 4:15 p.m. Thursday on the road against Payette. Seventh-grade volleyball The seventh-grade A squad beat Fruitland on the road Thursday behind the play of Kylie Potter, Marissa Ensley, Taylor Watkins and Amber Romriell. The league-leading A squad, which also features Caitlyn Johnson, Taylor Thomas and Sarah Maggard, has won six of its seven matches. The B team, including Jessica Westergard, Jessica Henry and Sagan Condon-Wade, also beat Fruitland on Thursday. Homedale takes on Ontario for a pair of 4:15 p.m. road matches Tuesday. The regular season ends Thursday with 4:15 p.m. showdowns with Payette.

period for insurance that was never needed.

Aquiso finished with 158 yards on 13 rushes, including an 88-yard ramble.

Rimrock's ground game, which rolled up 203 yards nearly outgained the entire Titans offensive attack. Tri-Valley managed 206 yards total.

Seventy of Tri-Valley's 139 yards rushing came on Broc Perry's touchdown run in the first quarter.

Senior Blake Welsh stopped two Tri-Valley's drives with interceptions, while sophomore Nate Hofer picked up two of Rimrock's four quarterback sacks.

Carlos Salinas, a sophomore defensive lineman, led Rimrock's defense with eight tackles and a sack. Six of his stops were solo efforts. Sophomore linebacker Chris Hipwell also picked up a sack.

Quarterback Anthony Hofer completed seven of 12 passes for 47 yards. The longest pass of the night went to Salinas for 20 yards.

The Raiders play host to Council in another 1A WIC game at 7 p.m. Friday.

Marsing JV can't find stride in winless week

Few serving errors couldn't save the Marsing High School junior varsity volleyball team from a 2A Western Idaho Conference loss Thursday in Melba.

The Mustangs and Huskies battled hard in the first game, and Melba needed all three games and another nail-biter to grab a 28-26, 21-25, 16-14 victory on its home floor.

"It was a real exciting game," Marsing coach Janet Cooney said. "The girls played real hard."

Samantha Wilson and Jessica Elsberry served for nine points apiece to pace the Huskies, who fell to 6-4 overall and 1-4 in 2A WIC with the setback. Wilson served two aces.

"Our serving was great," Cooney said. "In three games, we only had one service error."

Elsberry backed up her serves with four kills, while Taryn Chenoweth had a good all-around game with two kills, five assists and an ace.

Parma def. Marsing

The Huskies started the week with a sluggish 25-11, 25-15 conference loss to Parma in the home season finale for Marsing.

"We never got on track," Marsing coach Janet Cooney said. "Our passing really hurt us."

"We gave the ball back to the Panthers too often."

Taryn Chenoweth served for seven points, while Marsing teammate Jessica Elsberry had two kills and served an ace.

HAVE TOOLS - WILL TRAVEL

Fast, easy fall meals are also healthy with turkey, the only meat that is a “superfood.”

Turkey Sloppy Joes

SIMPLE Suppers Made SUPER

FAMILY FEATURES EDITORIAL SYNDICATE

As autumn settles in, more families enjoy meals at home — nearly 80 percent are prepared there as opposed to eaten in restaurants. But with on-the-go kids in school and extracurricular activities, there's less time available for busy parents to cook. Factor in the desire to provide appealing meals that are also healthy, and it's no wonder why many busy parents struggle for evening meal solutions.

But moms and dads can excitedly proclaim “dinner's almost ready” by adding turkey to their menu. “The reality is that busy families can have it all — they can serve simple suppers that are easy to prepare, and they can ensure great-tasting, nutritious meals by simply adding turkey to those favorite dishes that parents already routinely cook,” said Jennifer Bushman, author of several Kitchen Coach cookbooks including Weeknight Cooking and Week-end Cooking. “Everyone will love the taste of turkey in these meals, and parents can feel great about the nutritious, high-protein benefits turkey offers the family.”

A variety of simple-to-prepare meals — many of them regular family favorites — are every bit as tasty and provide a healthy choice when made with turkey. Try sloppy joes using ground turkey for a saucy and satisfying, yet protein-packed, family pleaser. Experience a zesty taste of the Southwest with easy turkey enchiladas. And break out of the ordinary routine with Italian turkey sausage and pasta — a quick, one-dish wonder that is sure to tantalize the taste buds.

Another way to add a touch of “super” to a best-loved dish is to create fabulous lasagna with ground turkey or Italian turkey sausage (sweet or hot). Turkey is also a prime-time performer when used in spaghetti with ground turkey meat sauce. Sign up for a “Turkey Recipe of the Month” e-mail newsletter and find hundreds more turkey recipes at www.honeysucklewhite.com or www.shadybrookfarms.com.

Superfood. Super easy.

Naturally protein-packed, turkey is a lower fat, healthier choice than many other meal options. In fact, turkey is the only meat named a “superfood” by Steven Pratt, MD, a food and health expert and co-author of Superfoods Rx: Fourteen Foods That Will Change Your Life. In his book, Dr. Pratt states that turkey is “a perfect example of a twenty-first century ‘healthy’ protein source ... and provides multiple nutrients which help build a strong immune system.”

For on-the-go parents, it's easy to incorporate “superfoods” into simple-yet-super meals. Find delectable recipes that combine turkey with more of Dr. Pratt's superfoods, including spinach, tomatoes, beans, walnuts, oats and yogurt, at www.honeysucklewhite.com and www.shadybrookfarms.com.

On the edge of common sense

EVACUATION!

Future headline: “GOVERNOR CALLS FOR MANDATORY EVACUATION!”

California Gov. Arnold Schwarzenegger, in response to the tragedy of Hurricane Katrina, New Orleans and Gulf Coast, has declared the San Andreas Fault line, and its tributaries an eminent disaster area of enormous proportions. He is exercising executive privilege and ordering the evacuation of all persons living, camping or touring within 100 miles on either side of the fault.

He is asking the federal government to assist with funding and facilitating this relocation. “We have been warned for years. Books have predicted the West Coast sliding into the sea. We have constant reminders, from tea cup rattlers to Oakland Bridge breakers.

“I am asking the president to lend us the Marine Corps. In addition, the governments of Vietnam, Egypt and Switzerland have offered to send troops to enforce an orderly departure. I know it will create some discomfort, but all of America will thank me some day.”

“Is this legal? This is the stupidest thing I have ever heard of!” declared a state senator. “I’m a native! I’ve lived here almost 12 years and sure, I’ve felt them, but my house never fell down!”

“How could America survive without Silicon Valley, Disneyland or Palm Springs?!” asked a prominent actress.

“It’s all about race!” said the NAACP, La Raza, the Vietnamese ambassador and the Skinheads.

Other interest groups proclaimed loudly, “It’s anti-business,” “anti-environmental,” “anti-war,” “anti-Bill Gates,” “anti-straight marriage,” “anti-this and anti-that.”

The media has already stirred a whirlpool in a frantic effort to assign blame, from the governor’s wife who wants to move the governor’s mansion to New York City, to the director of FEMA, who says we can’t be too careful, to the oil companies for drilling in Anwar, to salmon farming, Roller Ball, dairy waste, illegal immigration, the Lakers’ loss of Shaquille O’Neal and global warming.

The news coverage is so intense, several U.S. congressmen have called for hearings to discover how America could have let this happen. “Heads are gonna roll!” warned one of our elder statesmen. Then to one of his aides, “Does this mean we have to take a star off the flag?”

In a related story, Gov. Bush of Florida is declaring Miami, elevation 7 feet, as uninhabitable and asking Orlando, elevation 118 feet, to receive the evacuees. And the senior senator from Massachusetts is asking for federal funds to declare Boston and all of Cape Cod (except one small private acreage at Hyannisport) uninhabitable due to the dire tsunami threat. But Gov. Schwarzenegger remains adamant, “Three decades ago, New Orleans officials said they knew “The Big One” was coming. But they hoped it wouldn’t happen in their lifetime. So, stop yer whining, fellow Californians, load yer SUV, Mercedes, Lear jet, low rider or Greyhound and head east — back to Oklahoma!”

Not important ... but possibly of interest

This writer has previously noted the state of America’s education system is a sore point with me. During the past 40 years, the “experts” have come up with all sorts of new ideas to make our kids smarter. And all the tests suggest they have had exactly the opposite effect.

The first people to fall into the gun sights of education critics are the teachers. But I continue to believe that’s not entirely fair. Today’s teachers have little choice in how or what they teach. They get their orders from the school administrators, who get their orders from the state and federal government. And they must use textbooks approved by committees that often seem to have political agendas.

In addition, teachers must deal with parents, many of whom don’t want their little darlings disciplined or embarrassed by getting bad grades, even when they aren’t making a real effort to learn anything.

Recently, I received an e-mail from a family member whose spouse is a teacher. Included in that e-mail was a little story that, I believe, reflects the state of American education and how it got to be as bad as it is. I don’t know who originally wrote this. I wish I did, as the author deserves recognition.

“Teaching Math....

Last week, I purchased a burger at Burger King for $1.58. The counter girl took my $2 and I was digging for my change when I pulled 8 cents from my pocket and gave it to her. She stood there, holding the nickel and three pennies while looking at the screen on her register. I sensed her discomfort and tried to tell her to just give me two quarters, but she hailed the manager for help. While he tried to explain the transaction to her, she stood there and cried.

Why do I tell you this? Because of the evolution in teaching math since the 1950s:

Teaching Math In 1950 — A logger sells a truckload of lumber for $100. His cost of production is 4/5ths of the price. What is his profit?

Teaching Math In 1960 — A logger sells a truckload of lumber for $100. His cost of production is 4/5ths of the price, or $80. What is his profit?

Teaching Math In 1970 — A logger sells a truckload of lumber for $100. His cost of production is $80. Did he make a profit?

Teaching Math In 1980 — A logger sells a truckload of lumber for $100. His cost of production is $80 and his profit is $20. Your assignment: Underline the number 20.

Teaching Math In 1990 — A logger cuts down a beautiful forest because he is selfish and inconsiderate and cares nothing for the habitat of animals or the preservation of our woodlands. He does this so he can make a profit of $20. What do you think of this way of making a living? Topic for class participation after answering the question: How did the birds and squirrels feel as the logger cut down their homes? (There are no wrong answers.)

Teaching Math In 2005 — Un hachero vende una carretada de madera para $100. El costo de la producción es $80 ...”

The above analysis would be even funnier if it wasn’t relatively accurate.

Commissioners made right choice for county treasurer

I support the Owyhee County Commissioners’ appointment of Brenda Richards to the office of county treasurer.

County commissioners have a legal responsibility to see that county government works efficiently and effectively. These commissioners followed the law in filling the position, just as we precinct committeemen followed the Republican Party rules in the process to make our recommendations.

The perception that the entire Central Committee was opposed to the commissioners’ decision is wrong. When the votes were tallied by the Central Committee, one of the precinct committee persons stated, “This was a tough one because the candidates were both very well qualified.”

Knowing Brenda’s personality, education, banking experience and interest in the county, she will work for a smooth transition with her staff and the other county-elected officials. She will do a great job as Owyhee County treasurer.

Homedale, Marsing banks sold; new directors named

Following the meeting of the board of directors of the Homedale State Bank, C. L. Miller, president announced the sale of all the capital stock of the bank to C. I. Canfield, L. H. Vietmeier and R. W. Le Duc.

New board of directors of the bank, and the Marsing sate bank, are Mr. Canfield, Mr. Vietmeier, Mr. Le Duc, Mrs. C. I. Canfield and Charles R. Canfield.

At a meeting of the new board of directors of the Homedale bank C. I. Canfield was elected president, Mr. Vietmeier, vice president and cashier, Mr. Le Duc, vice president, and Bonnie Parker, assistant cashier.

City council harried over financing sewer extension

The biggest headache currently plaguing the Homedale city council is financing for an extension of the city sewer system. Only about three-fifth of Homedale is serviced by the city sewer system, the other two-fifth must depend on cesspools and similar disposal.

“Extension of the sewer lines to include approximately 200 additional hookups will cost about $30,000. The great need for this service is recognized and the council is trying to ease the situation,” Mayor Les Carter declared.

“In working toward a solution, the council has discussed the possibility of financing the expansion by levying a sewer users tax. An alternative is to issue bonds in the amount required for installation of the new sewer lines. However, such a bond issue must be approved by electors of the city at a special bond election,” the mayor stressed.

Onion crop next at packing sheds

According to Les Sargent of the J. C. Watson company, onions will be the next crop handled a their local shed. Onion prices look good, he said.

Watsons finished the Italian prune crop Monday and shipped approximately 80 cars. President plums will be finished this week. Between 15 and 20 cars of plums are expected to be shipped.

Simplots shed will be sorting and storing onions the next two weeks according to R. E. Bennett.

J. C. Palumbo company finished the prune crop this week and is starting on onions.

Western Idaho Potato growers shed is quiet this week. Phonse Babbitt is vacationing.

Kiwanis hears talk by Coach Bell on Trojan footballers

Manford Logan, a member of the Homedale Kiwanis club, who has been absent all summer, was welcomed back to the club at the regular Wednesday noon meeting.

Coach Deward Bell reported on the Homedale Trojans football team which will play New Plymouth at New Plymouth Friday.

Coach Bell commented on the single wing style of play he teaches, and discussed why he thinks it a better system for high school teams. He said the T formation was strictly pendent on a good quarterback. He also said the single wing gives the ball carrier more confidence because it calls for one or more men to run interference, rather than shaking the ball carrier loose and putting him on his own.

Succor Crik Sam Sez: “I’m headed out after my winter’s supply of jerky. There’ll be several thousand other jerks out after the same thing.”

High school news

Student activities were suspended this week at the high school as investigation of the watermelon episode continued.

At a meeting of the Homedale student council this afternoon, it was decided that each class will share the expenses of the damage and labor to clean up the broken watermelons and fix the door locks. The ban on school activities was lifted.

INDIAN MASSACRE IN FLINT. One more good man has been murdered scalped and burned in our midst, and the savage perpetrated can not go unpunished with some booty, such as pistol, blankets, &c.

This fresh atrocity was committed during last Thursday night, within half a mile or Oro and Owyhee Cities, near the road leading between there and here. The unfortunate victim’s name is Joseph F. Colwell. He came to this Territory with Messrs. Bloom & Her in 1865, from Jacksonville, Oregon. He was formerly from Missouri. The late hour yesterday at which we received this unwelcome item, prevented our obtaining further information of the deceased.

It may be well enough to state here for the Indians friends elsewhere – for they justly have none here – that these red devils perpetrated the deed in their usual Christian (?) style, with unimportant variations by shooting, scalping and then throwing the body on a fire and partly consuming the breast and bowels. We may soon expect to hear of the throne of Grace being besieged with orisons and supplications for “Lol the poor Indian,” by our Eastern countrymen, who are totally ignorant of his fiendish character.

MINERS’ LEAGUE. On the evening of October 1st, the miners and workingmen from several of the mines and mills in and about town, assembled at the Court House Hall for the purpose of organizing a Miners’ League. The movement was characterized as a “strike” for higher wages. These miners have been receiving five dollars per day, and six more demanded. The meeting elected a committee whose duty it was to draft a Constitution and By-Laws, by which to govern the organization and report the next evening at seven o’clock. Accordingly, the Constitution, &c., which we lay before our readers in this paper, was reported and adopted. It is yet impossible to decide how the mater will terminate. Nearly all of the mines have been idle for four days, but as we go to press we understand that some of the mining companies have commenced working again – some at the fixed amount of the league, $5.50 coin, and others at the former rates, $5 – and the “strikers” are holding meetings to determine a course of action. Our limited space forbids further parties for comment this week.

LEGAL TENDERS. Pursuant to call, a meeting was held on Monday evening last for the purpose of regulating the currency in Owyhee. A resolution was adopted and very generally signed by the merchants and other businessmen of the place, reducing Legal Tenders from 80 cents and fixing their value from and after the first of October at 75 cents. Of course this will not affect debts contracted or bargains made prior to October 1st, which will be settled at the former value of Legal Tenders, 80 cents.

LAST WEEK a company of fifteen men, under command of Wm. H. Odell, were encamped at Boonville. They are going to survey a route for a military wagon road, which commenced at Eugene City and runs to the eastern boundary of Oregon. The road will be 500 miles in length. We understand that it is already graded through the Cascade Range, and Odell and party will survey and locate the portion this side of those mountains.

SOMMERCAMP is the man who makes the lager. His new building approaches completion: it will be the largest edifice in Owyhee. An extensive brewery will occupy the cellar, and the upper portion on a level with the street will be fitted up into a magnificent Billiard Saloon. Sommercamp can’t be excelled in the saloon business.

BEN DOUGLAS has removed out of his old stand and is now fitted up in Bart’s Exchange, on Jordan Street, opposite the Idaho Hotel. Ben has things in “apple pie” order and if you want a “night-cap” or an “eye-opener,” call and see him; he knows how to please the most fastidious. Also, he keeps on hand cigars of the best quality.

WE LEARN from the Boise City and Idaho papers that Lisle Lester, our talented townswoman, who is now giving Dramatic and Poetical Readings throughout the Basin, draws crowded houses and that her tour will be a bright spot on the record of fame as well as a success financially.

LAST TUESDAY evening, Frank Courier, engaged in hauling wood, fell from his wagon and was run over by one of the wheels. One knee and a leg were severely bruised and the pain thereof caused him to suffer much; but we are glad to know that his injuries are not dangerous.

THE PUBLIC are respectfully requested to notice remodeled advertisement of the City Hotel in another place. Wm. Mayes is now sole proprietor of this well-known and popular house. Mayers gets up a good square meal and bus good sleeping accommodations. Give him a call.

FOUNDRY. John McMahon and Mr. Cruikshanks have their new foundry, at the upper end of town, nearly completed. They started the machinery yesterday and everything works smoothly and well. They have already a number of tuns of iron on hand, and several orders on their books. The first casting will be done the beginning of next week. The foundry will be a great benefit to mill men in Owyhee, and also to the whole Territory, it being the only one in Idaho, and castings can be turned out here much cheaper than the cost of shipping them from below; besides a great convenience to the home business is that people will be enabled to get their work done to order on short notice. We wish an entire success to the enterprising proprietors and hope to see them liberally patronized.

THE DIORAMA came off last Saturday evening as per announcement. Everybody and his wife and children were there, and consequently the Court House was crowded. The performance did not come up to popular expectation, although a few very fine Chromotropes were displayed. The funny genius, the “razor-strop man,” helped the arrangement out considerably by singing a few of his comic songs. The general opinion of our people seems to be that the “Grand Diorama” was gotten up as a show for school children in the backwoods, and that the proprietor was a guilty of a great mistake in brining his show before an enlightened community – as that of Silver City.

It is but justice to Mr. Matteson to state that the reason whey his views did not show to better advantage was that through an accident his calcium light was broken, which materially lessened the brilliancy of the scenes.

Become a part of Owyhee County history while helping preserve that history

The Owyhee County Historical Society has launched a campaign to raise $594,800 for a 6,400 square-foot addition to its complex at Murphy. The OCHS is an educations institution dedicated to collecting, preserving, studying, and interpreting the artifacts and documents that tell the story of the people of the Owyhees.

Increased attendance and renewed focus on the education programs has prompted the need for additional learning, exhibit, research and public space. The project is designed to create opportunities in expanding programs, creating interactive exhibits and collaborating with corporations and organizations across the region. Most of the new and renovated structure will be dedicated to these needs. The society is asking your help in this endeavor to more than double the size of its complex through several ways of participation: Commemorative brick program, planned giving, grants, donations, and memberships.
