Perfect JV girls notch two more victories

by Michelle Elsner, JVHS

The Jordan Valley High School girls basketball team has picked up where it left off before the Christmas break — winning in the High Desert League.

After blowing out Mitchell 91-8 on Friday, the Mustangs shook off some nerves to beat Spray, 54-42, on the road Saturday night.

Jordan Valley (12-0 overall, 5-0 HDL) came into the Spray game a little nervous after learning the Eagles earlier in the season had knocked off defending district champion Joseph. But you wouldn't know it from the way the Mustangs started the game.

Michelle Elsner scored five quick points, and then let her

A Christoffersen sets tourney on its ear once again

Saturday was a day of statements for the Homedale High School wrestling team at the Rollie Lane Invitational in Nampa.

On one hand, senior 152-pounder Bryan Martinat continued to distance himself from a sour ending to his junior season by winning a Lane championship Saturday at the Idaho Center.

"It means a lot to me probably because it's bouncing back from the injury and not being able to finish the season," said Martinat, who suffered a broken leg in his 152-pound 3A District III championship match against Bryon Doramus of Middleton $10\frac{1}{2}$ months ago.

"I came back this year with a little bit more determination. One of the goals is to go undefeated into the state tournament."

Martinat is off to a fine start with a 16-0 record and 13 pins after edging Coeur d'Alene junior Jesse Nielsen 6-3 in the championship Saturday afternoon.

"He was a pretty tough kid," Martinat said. "He wasn't seeded too high in the tournament, but he was a junior and a pretty tough kid."

In the other corner for Homedale on Saturday was 145-pounder

12th-grader Jason Christoffersen, who finished fourth in Saturday's elimination rounds only because

Quebrado drives Marsing to victory

Layup provides heart-stopping Huskies win

The plan called for Shea Mc-Clellin to get the ball. In the end, another senior pulled the Marsing High School boys basketball team to a thrilling victory Thursday.

Point guard Miguel Quebrado tossed up a lay-in the final seconds at home as the Huskies escaped with a 62-61 non-conference victory over Greenleaf Friends Academy.

"Miguel showed some great leadership and composure at the end of the game," first-year Marsing coach Jake Walgamott said. "We knew they would double(team) Shea on the inbounds play. "I told the guys that if we can get it to Shea then get it to him, but don't force it."

Quebrado was anything but impatient in the waning seconds. Perhaps he was too deliberate for Marsing fans' heart health before zooming to the basket and scoring with 4.9 seconds remaining.

"After Miguel split the doubleteam, he kept waiting to throw it to (Johnathan Cossel)," Walgamott said.

"But nobody stopped him, so he took the shot. It was awesome to

Fast start sends Trojans girls past young Vandals in SRV

Homedale warms up for Fruitland by beating former Rimrock coach

The Homedale High School girls basketball team beat a legend at his own game Friday night.

The Trojans rolled out to a comfortable halftime lead en route to a 41-25 3A Snake River Valley conference victory over visiting McCall-Donnelly.

"We just came out with a lot of pressure from the get-go," Homedale coach Mike Greeley said.

"They're a young team and they have inexperienced ball-handlers, so we capitalized on that."

The Vandals are coached by former Rimrock coach Bob Delle, whose Raiders teams made a living out of making mincemeat of their opponents with fast starts. Delle announced his retirement last year before the two-time state champion Raiders finished fourth in the 1A state tournament.

Apparently, Delle, who had commuted from McCall to Bruneau for Rimrock games and practices during the latter stages of his Owyhee County stint, was coaxed out of retirement.

"He's got some height, but they're young, Homedale coach Mike Greeley said.

jans (5-10 overall, 2-1 3A SRVthrough Monday) outperformed the Vandals' height by taking advantage of the inexperience. Homedale owned a 30-15 edge in the game and a 23-11 edge on the scoreboard in the first half.

Corey Hall grabbed five rebounds to pace the Trojans. She and Hannah Johnson led Homedale with eight points apiece.

Although Hall scored six of her eight points before intermission, Greeley said she made her biggest impact in the second half.

"She was struggling in the first half, but then got it together in the second half," Greeley said of Hall. "In the second half, she made the difference in rebounding and playing defense."

Melissa Dannerman led the Vandals (0-10, 0-3) with eight

Greeley saw the win as a good way to come back from the holiday break and focus on the team's biggest task thus far this season — Fruitland (10-4, 2-1) on the road Thursday. The Grizzlies lost to unbeaten conference leader Weiser, 49-37, on Friday to fall into a second-place tie with the

"We've been working on our defense and offense working underneath the basket, and that's where the difference is going to come," Greeley said of this week's showdown.

"Fruitland's beatable, and I think we're the ones that can do it, if anyone is going to do it."

Marsing wrestlers present mat matinee

Huskies host tri-meet Thursday afternoon, tournament on Saturday

From the very beginning, Rick Folwell has been one of the biggest supporters of Marsing High School wrestling.

Of course, he's the Huskies' coach. It's in his job description.

But Folwell still has looked for ways to bring attention to his program. This week, the spotlight falls squarely on the Huskies as they play host to a tri-meet Thursday and then present their second annual Marsing Duals Tournament on Saturday.

Both meets will be unique. On Saturday, varsity and junior varsity teams from six teams in Oregon and Idaho will mix and match to fill 13 weight classes per match for duals. On Thursday, Crane, Ore., and Melba visit for a matinee tri-meet. In an attempt to pack the stands, school officials are releasing Marsing students early so they can watch the action.

"This meet gives us the opportunity to share our sport with our student body, who often are busy with basketball and other activities and are unable to attend our meets," Folwell said.

"It's also a chance to show our school spirit. Our cheerleaders are making signs and will be there to motivate and support."

It will give Marsing students a chance to see 2006 1A-2A state tournament placer Michael Tuckness in action. The 171-pounder has lost just once in eight matches this season. He won the Caldwell Invitational championship, and he's coming off a victory over state-ranked Ian Updike of Gar-

"As our only senior this year, we hope he will continue to have a great season and lead as many of the younger boys with him on his third trip to state," Folwell said.

was thrust into the po-

Michael Tuckness

season when Daniel Ineck's high school career was ended by knee surgery after the Huskies' run to the 2A football state playoffs in Updike will be in Marsing on Saturday for the Marsing Duals. Garden Valley, Crane and Adrian will bring varsity wrestlers, while the junior varsity squads for Homedale, Nampa and Vallivue return for the second year.

Each wrestler will get four or five matches Saturday, a saturation policy that Folwell said is aimed at giving the younger wrestlers as much mat time as possible to learn and grow. But while there will be a team championship handed out, school loyalties will blur for the sake of helping smaller teams fill out their rosters.

"The biggest obstacle to winning a duals tournament for a small team is missing weight classes," Folwell said. "Garden Valley and Marsing have fewer guvs to choose from and will be relying on second- and third-string guys from the bigger schools to round out our rosters. This gives the bigger schools a better chance of pulling off a win.

"However, the purpose of this tournament is not the trophy; it is the opportunity for each wrestler on each team to get mat time."

Adrian, which is in its second season of a rebuilding process, will bring only a couple wrestlers, according to Folwell.

Other Marsing wrestlers to watch out for include junior Kris Young, a 140-pounder who is 4-4 this season and finished third at the Caldwell Invitational. Sophomores Mike Moore (145) and Carlos Ceballos (189) each have five wins this season.

Folwell said he always has wanted to bring a tournament to Marsing, emulating what former Huskies coach Steve Clapier did in 1978-79.

"He conducted a one-day training clinic for young wrestlers and then let us beat each other up in the evening," Folwell said of Clapier's tourney philosophy. "This was my first exposure to the sport, and I am proud to be able to help promote the sport again in our community."

Adrian girls split HDL games, fall out of first place in East

Antelopes can regain a share of division lead with win vs. Mustangs on Thursday night

The Adrian High School girls basketball team fell one game short of their quest to remain perfect in the High Desert League East Division and maintain pace with Jordan Valley.

The Antelopes (8-4 overall, 4-1 HDL at week's end) split their weekend league games, but fell out of a tie for first place with the Mustangs with a 37-30 loss to West Division second-place team Spray on Friday.

Adrian drubbed Mitchell 61-16 on Saturday to stay just one game behind the Mustangs heading into Thursday's showdown on the road against Jordan Valley.

Adrian 48

Greenleaf Friends 36

Adrian began the week with eagle-eye foul shooting and a big third quarter to beat visiting nonconference foe Greenleaf Friends Academy on Jan. 2.

Clinging to a two-point lead coming out of the halftime break, Adrian racked up 19 points in the next eight minutes to blow open the non-conference game.

Amanda Simpson scored six points, and Ryann Bowns and Paige Branstiter added four points each in the period as Adrian outscored the Grizzlies 19-6.

Greenleaf's poor foul shooting helped secure the win for Adrian. The Grizzlies of the 1A Western Idaho Conference hit only seven of 22 free throws, while the Antelopes went 6-for-7 from the line.

Simpson scored a co-game-high 16 points for Adrian. Michelle Gooding led Greenleaf with 16 points, while teammate Tara Okamura added 10.

Branstiter scored 12 points before picking up her fifth foul with 2 minutes, 4 seconds left in teammates take over. Jordan Valley put seven players in the scoring column to withstand the heralded outside shooting of Spray's Emily Fischer, who hit three 3-pointers on her way to 22 points.

Tera Rust was 3-for-4 from the foul line and scored seven points for the Antelopes.

Angela Larsen racked up 18 points, four steals and seven rebounds. Bailey Kershner chipped in 12 points, five steals, five rebounds and a block.

Megan Mackenzie scored nine points as the Mustangs coped with foul trouble, too. Two players finished with four fouls, and two others had three fouls.

Coach Jeremy Chamberlain said the game came down to rebounding strength.

"It was something we focused on during the week," he said. "We did a good job of handling their full-court press, which is something we haven't seen a lot this season. Another advantage we held over Spray was our depth on the bench, which helped us a lot with our foul troubles."

Bailey Kershner led the way with an all-around game Friday against Mitchell.

She scored 14 points while registering seven steals and seven rebounds (four on the Mustangs' end of the floor).

The Mustangs piled on scoring with 10 points apiece from Angela Larsen, Kayla Cuvelier and Athena Beckwith. Larsen also grabbed five offensive rebounds, while Chelicy Payne collected four defensive rebounds.

"I really don't know what to say about this game," Chamberlain said. "I've never seen anything like that before.

'We tried to keep our bench players in the game as much as possible. While the score was not close at any point, we allowed Mitchell to attempt 37 shots, by comparison, Spray attempted 44 shots the following night."

Michelle Elsner and Elisa Eiguren scored eight points each with Megan Mackenzie and Annie Mackenzie scoring six points

The Mustangs will try to put some distance between themselves and Adrian in the East Division during a Thursday home game against the Antelopes. Jordan Valley then travels to face Burnt River on Saturday.

Ryska's big night leads Homedale freshmen

Ryan Ryska scored a game-high 19 points Thursday to lead the Homedale High School freshman boys basketball team to another victory.

The Trojans racked up 31 points in the second half to down nonconference visitor New Plymouth Homedale (8-3 overall at week's end) also received a doubledouble from Alex Mereness, who scored 13 points and snagged 11 rebounds.

Justin Harrell also collected 10 boards.

"We started at rusty in the first half coming out of Christmas break only scoring 17 points, but played much better in the second half," first-year Homedale freshman coach Jason George

Same old story as Raiders girls start new year

Four players hit double digits, Rimrock wins 13th straight game

Four of a kind was a great winning hand Thursday night in Nevada as Rimrock High School won its 13th consecutive girls basketball game.

Ellie Cantrell drained five 3-point goals, and her 21 points led four Raiders in double figures as Rimrock crushed Owyhee, Nev., 69-38, in a non-conference game.

The Raiders (13-0 overall) took control of the game with a 23-8 run through the second quarter. Owyhee County product Shavleah Hunter scored six of the Braves' eight points in the frame.

A 5-foot-8 junior and the only Idaho player on the Owyhee varsity, Hunter finished with 10 points, including 2-for-3 shooting from the foul line.

Owyhee, ranked second among Nevada's

Class A schools according to the Pahrump Valley Times, was led by 14 points from 5-9 junior Holly Thomas.

The Braves' height couldn't keep Rimrock freshman post Jackie Thurman from another solid night. Thurman was 3for-3 from the free-throw line and scored 11 points. She capped her double-double by grabbing seven of her 11 rebounds on the Owyhee end of the floor.

Anna Cantrell led the Raiders with a dozen rebounds, including eight on the defensive glass. She scored six points.

Kaile Murray nailed three treys as part of her 17 points for Rimrock, while Shelby Chandler scored 11 points and dished a team-high seven assists.

Rimrock jumped back into the 1A Western Idaho Conference season Monday on the road against Wilder. Results weren't available at press time. Coach Mike Chandler's squad is on the road in Caldwell on Saturday to face conference foe Gem State Adventist.

Adrian boys grab first HDL victory

The Adrian High School boys basketball team nearly gave away its first High Desert League victory of the year Saturday.

All but two of the Antelopes' players scored in a 59-53 interdivisional victory over host Mitchell.

But turnovers and fouls in the fourth quarter nearly let the Loggers complete a comeback.

"In the closing of the fourth, we stepped up when we needed to," first-year Adrian coach Brent Ishida said.

Neiko Hernandez scored seven points in the final frame for Mitchell, but Kade Thomas rallied the Antelopes with six of his 15 points in the fourth quarter.

Adrian (2-9 overall, 1-4 HDL) built equity toward its win with an 11-for-18 showing from the free-throw line.

Marus Hope drained three of four foul shots on his way to a game-high 19 points.

Conversely, Mitchell (3-7, 2-3) connected on only seven of 17 shots from the charity stripe.

Shawn Carter fired in three 3-point goals on the way to 18 points for Mitchell.

Adrian visits Jordan Valley on Thursday for an HDL intradivisional game.

Spray 60, Adrian 39

Adrian ran into the complete package Friday on the road as the unbeaten Eagles of the HDL West Division raced out to a 44-16 halftime lead and cruised to a win.

"My hat's off to Spray," Ishida said. "They have a welldisciplined team. They are a threat inside and out, which makes it difficult to defend."

Jacob Fischer hit six of his team's 10 3-pointers to lead Spray with 22 points.

Nearly every player scored for the Antelopes, with George Ellsworth pouring in nine of his 11 points in the second half. Hope added eight points for Adrian.

Asa Miller scored all 13 of his points in the first half for Spray (14-0, 5-0).

Sophomore Lagunas helps Huskies J V win

Yvan Lagunas goes in for a layup as part of his 10 points Thursday night as Greenleaf Friends Academy junior Nam Kim trails the play. The host Marsing High School junior varsity A boys basketball team routed the Grizzlies in a non-conference matchup.

√ Trojans: Squad finishes tied for 11th at Idaho Center

Bryan Martinat

Jason

Christoffersen

From Page 1B he ran out of time.

Christoffersen had to wrestle a pigtail match early Saturday morning, and that eventually would put him at the five-matchper-day limit set by the state governing body. He had to forfeit the third-place match.

"Jason wrestled out of his mind. He was incredible,"

Homedale coach Toby Johnson said.

While Martinat's narrow win over Nielsen gave the Trojans their fourth Rollie Lane title in three years, Christoffersen continued a family tradition while assuring Homedale would put at least three wrestlers on the medals podium for the third consecutive season.

The Trojans finished in a four-way tie for 11th with 28 points along with Bonneville, Kuna and Nucla, Colo., which featured two nephews of the tournament's namesake. Homedale finished higher than any other team entered from the 3A Snake River Valley Conference, which included Fruitland and Weiser.

"We had a good showing," Johnson said. "Once again we proved that little ol' Homedale produces tough, competitive wrestlers."

Junior 285-pounder fifth to round out the medal men for the Trojans. Fellow junior heavyweight Jaime Uriarte and 125-pound junior Frankie Obregon each were one win away from placing.

The only other Homedale wrestler to make it to the second day after a grueling round-robin Friday was Danny Zenor, a sophomore at 130 pounds.

But, while Martinat may have been considered the headliner for the Trojans last weekend, Christoffersen essentially stole the show with his mind-boggling performance.

Martinat, who with Christoffersen and injured Tyler Maxwell is one of only three seniors of the squad, didn't mind

"Jason Christoffersen had a great tournament," Martinat

And the crowning achievement probably came in the consolation semifinal — which turned out to be his final match — when Christoffersen trounced stateranked David Bilboa of Weiser,

"He started with two monster throws to end the first round 10-1." Johnson said.

Bilboa lost to Jason's older brother, Tyler, in the district final

The end of the line for Jason Christoffersen prevented a rematch against Chas Huntington of Eagle, who had sent him into the consolation bracket earlier Saturday.

"I think Jason would have done better against him in a rematch," Johnson said. "He was on a roll and dominating. Jason was my hero on Saturday."

Martinat didn't cruise through his championship bracket. He nipped Drew Bingham of Fruitland 8-6 in the semifinals. The pair will hook up in eight days, on Jan. 18, when the Trojans visit the Grizzlies for their conference dual meet.

"He's a definite threat," Martinat said. "It could go either way, but I feel if I keep on working hard and getting in shape, I'll stay one step ahead of him, hopefully."

Martinat stayed one step ahead of everyone Saturday, breaking a scoreless tie with Nielsen by choosing the down position to start the second round. He promptly grabbed points with an escape.

"I chose down because Amador Cortinas placed Amador Cortinas I figured I had a better chance of escaping him than getting a reversal because he's a big, strong kid," Martinat said.

Calling Cortinas a big, strong kid would be an understatement of mammoth proportions. He entered the heavyweight pool play Friday as one of the tournament's top-seeded wrestlers and breezed through the first day.

On Saturday, he jumped out with a pin of Lowry, Nev., wrestler Mat Tiske and a triple-overtime victory over Middleton's Cody Harvey to snag a medal.

Cortinas then lost to Jake Densley and was surprised by Brad Curtis of Idaho Falls' Skyline before rebounding to beat Harvey again, 5-2, in the fifthplace match.

"Amador wrestler very well," Johnson said. "He showed a lot of skill and talent.

"He proved he's one of the best heavyweights in the state."

Mustangs complete long High Desert trip with split

by Koehl Trautman, JVHS

The Jordan Valley High School boys basketball team traveled more than six hours to Mitchell, Ore., on Friday to take on the Loggers in a High Desert League game.

The Mustangs (5-5 overall, 3-2 HDL at week's end) prevailed with a 64-31 win, and their lead was easily maintained throughout the game.

Jordan Valley started with senior Jerry Wroten at guard, freshman Dusty Easterday and sophomore Zac Fillmore at post, as well as freshman Brandan Mackenzie and sophomore Alek Quintero to round out the top five.

In the first half, the boys jumped out to a 34-22 lead, relying heavily on Fillmore, who contributed 10 points inside the paint.

Quintero hit two 3-point goals while accumulating 10 points. He finished with 15 for the game.

The Mustangs added another 30 points in the second half and used a man-to-man defense to hold the Loggers to just nine points.

Koehl Trautman came alive in the second half and contributed eight points from the post position. Tad Jones and Mackenzie scored four points each.

"It's great to be a part of such a young team," Jones said. "This has been a great year and quite a learning experience."

The host Eagles used size, strength and quickness to counter the Mustangs' man-to-man defense in the first half Saturday on the way to a 24-point lead at the break.

Jordan Valley came out in the defensive set because the Mustangs expected Spray to find success from the 3-point line.

The Mustangs outscored Spray in the second half but couldn't overcome the large early deficit.

Trautman led the Mustangs with 13 points, followed by Fillmore with six, Easterday with four, and Jones with three.

CITY OF MARSING, IDAHO ORDINANCE NO. A-161

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF MARSING, IDAHO AMENDING ORDINANCE A-105; SETTING FORTH THE PROCEDURE FOR DELINQUENT WATER BILLS; PROVIDING FOR SEVERABILITY; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE

WHEREAS, City of Marsing finds that delinquent water bills are detrimental to the welfare of the city and its inhabitants and a clear policy should govern the termination of water services due to such delinquency.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE MAYOR AND CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF MARSING, IDAHO:

The following Section 11 of Ordinance A-105 shall be amended as follows:

SECTION 11: DELINQUENT BILLS: The billing cycle for the water user shall be on a monthly basis. Meters shall be read on a monthly basis except as allowed to the contrary by the City Council. On the tenth of the month immediately following the meter reading, the billing shall become due and payable. If the billing is not paid by the 25th of that same month, the water user's bill shall be deemed delinquent and the services of the user may be terminated immediately. Meters shall be read on a monthly basis.

Meters shall be read on a monthly basis except as allowed to the contrary by the Council. On the tenth (10th) of the month immediately following the meter reading the billing shall become due and payable and if the billing is not paid by the twenty-fifth (25th) of the month the water user bill shall be delinquent. If the delinquency is not made current within ten (10) days of the twentyfifth (25th) day of the month in which the water billing is due, then the services of the user may be terminated immediately.

The City may require the consumer to pay a turn-on charge plus a deposit as a condition of receiving city water service.

Any objection to termination shall be in writing stating the grounds upon which the objection is made. A hearing on the objection shall be held according to law before the Council or its designated agent. The hearing and findings shall be conducted according to law.

Savings Clause.

Should any court of competent jurisdiction declare any section or clause or provision of this Ordinance to be unconstitutional or ultra vires, such decision shall affect only such section, clause or provision so declared unconstitutional and shall not affect any other section, clause or provision of this Ordinance.

Effective Date.

This ordinance shall be in full force and effect upon its passage, approval and publication in the official newspaper of the City.

APPROVED by the Mayor and City Council this 19th day of December, 2006.

NOTICE JANUARY 1, 2007- 1ST QUARTER TO: CITY OF MARSING RESIDENTS FROM: CITY OF MARSING RE: WATER QUALITY IN THE CITY

Dear City of Marsing Resident

Effective January 26, 2006, the US Environmental Protection Agency reduced the drinking water standard for arsenic from 50 parts per billion (ppb) to 10 ppb. One well supplying water to the City of Marsing, Well #3, has an arsenic concentration of 11 ppb, which exceeds the Maximum Contaminant Level set forth by the EPA. The City of Marsing is required to provide quarterly public notice of this exceedence. You will continue to receive this notice every quarter until such time as the City is notified by IDEQ the notice is no longer required.

Arsenic is a naturally occurring element thought to enter the water source from contact with natural rock formations. Arsenic can cause adverse health effects, including cardiovascular disease, diabetes mellitus, skin changes, nervous system damage, and various forms of cancer.

The City of Marsing is taking action to remove the well as a source of water for the water system. As you may be aware, the City is in the process of upgrading the municipal water system, and a new well to serve the system, and replace Well #3, will be first item completed for water system upgrade project.

THANK YOU

I would like to thank the Jordan Valley Senior Class of 2006 for their donation from the Michelle McKay Mackenzie Run. It will really be helpful towards medical bills. It was so kind and thoughtful of you. I really appreciate it. God Bless You. Patty Ackerman

Owyhee Health & Rehabilitation Center would like to express their sincere appreciation to the community for their outpouring of Christmas gifts for our residents. A special thank vou to the Wilson Sage Hen Club and Last Chance Saloon for their generosity. Thanks to Dean Shelton and family for the television purchased for the resident lounge. We would also like to express our gratitude to the Owyhee Avalanche for their organization of the annual gift drive, to all of the Christmas Carolers that visited our facility, and to the families of our residents who helped make our Christmas special and meaningful this year. Sincerely, Owyhee Heath & Rehab see him make that basket."

The last of Quebrado's seven points allowed Marsing (8-2 overall at week's end) to survive a scare from the 1A Grizzlies.

"I cannot take anything away from Greenleaf," Walgamott

"They played good basketball. Matt Choate is good, and he played 100 mph all the time. And Greenleaf is a well-coached team."

Choate scored 18 points to the Grizzlies.

McClellin was the statistical champion Thursday, racking up a double-double of gamehighs with 26 points and 11 rebounds.

Nick Mar-Shea McClellin man came off the bench to add nine points for the Huskies as Cossel — saddled with four fouls — was limited to just nine points.

"I really feel good about our ability to overcome the adversity we have faced in games this season," Walgamott said. "I think it will make us that much better later on in the season."

Homedale resident Brandt Graber started and scored eight points for Greenleaf. He hit two 3-pointers, dished four assists and corralled two offensive re-

Marsing makes Fish and Game's trout stocking list

Marsing Pond at Island Park is one of four locations where the Idaho Department of Fish and Game will release fish this month.

Fish and Game's Southwest Region office in Nampa announced Thursday that its personnel will stock the Marsing Pond with 500 catchable-size rainbow trout sometime in January.

The fish are part of 3,500 that will be released into four bodies of water in the region. Mann Creek Reservoir near Weiser will receive 1,500, and Wilson Spring Ponds in Nampa will receive 1,000.

Wilson Spring, another Nampa location, is scheduled to get 500

The number of trout stocked can be affected by weather, water conditions, equipment problems or schedule changes, Fish and Game officials said. If delays occur, the fish will be stocked in the locations when conditions become favorable.
