South Board sets tentative irrigation shutoff date

Irrigators in the southern portion of the Owyhee Project have about five weeks of water left.

The Joint Board has set Oct. 10 as the tentative shutoff date for the South Board of Control region.

The north end of the project, which is governed by the Owyhee Irrigation District, will shut off a few days earlier because the Malheur Siphon is in need of repairs.

The latest developments in the business of irrigation water in the region will be discussed during a series of board meetings Tuesday.

The Ridgeview Irrigation District board of directors will meet at 7 p.m.

The Gem Irrigation District directors will meet at 7:15 p.m.

The South Board of Control directors, comprised of the full Gem Irrigation board and the Ridgeview board chair, meet at 7:30 p.m.

All three meetings take place in the basement boardroom inside the SBOC office, 118 S. 1st St. W., in Homedale.

For more information, call (208) 337-3760.

Farmers' Market winds down for 2018

Qwest Fraire, 10 months old of Boise, makes his interest level in his family's shopping plain to see at the Homedale Farmers' Market on Thursday afternoon at Bette Uda City Park. Qwest is the son of Rojae and JJ Fraire.

Farmers' Market winds down

Only a handful of Thursdays left at Bette Uda City Park

The Homedale Farmers' Market season is in the home stretch, but there are still a few chances left to get fresh produce and other products.

The market will be open for business for four more weeks, so there is plenty of time to take the family down to Bette Uda City Park in Homedale to enjoy the sunshine and deals on fresh produce, pastries, and handmade items.

The farmers' market runs from 3 p.m. to 7 p.m. each Thursday. Dates remaining include Thursday, Sept. 13, Sept. 20 and Sept. 27.

The farmers' market will cap the season with a community yard sale from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Saturday, Sept. 29 at the park.

There is a $10 space fee for vendors who pre-register prior to Sept. 25. The cost to reserve a spot doubles to $20 afterward.

Interested vendors can register online at www.homedalefarmersmarket.com.

County launches use survey for area from Marsing to Sinker

Citizens can give feedback at open house, too

Residents living in the area between Marsing and Sinker Creek can let county planners know how they want land zoned.

Homedale businesses urged to show school spirit for Homecoming

Cheerleaders' project tied into next week's celebration

Cheerleaders made the rounds Thursday to promote local businesses Painting the Town Red for Homedale High School's Homecoming week.

Homecoming begins Monday and culminates with a Sept. 14 non-conference football game against Filer from the Magic Valley at 50-year-old Deward Bell Stadium.

Next Wednesday is the deadline for business owners to decorate their storefronts.

High school cheerleaders will judge storefronts and pick one that best shows support for the Trojans. That business will earn yearlong possession of a trophy recognizing school spirit.

The winning business will be announced during the Sept. 14 Homecoming game and also in The Owyhee Avalanche on Sept. 19.

Judging will take place on Thursday, Sept. 13 prior to the Homecoming parade. The downtown parade is scheduled to start at 2:50 p.m.

For more information, contact HHS cheer coach Evonne McGuire at evonne@evonnemcguire.com.

The cheerleaders have taken a more active role in drumming up school spirit this year, launching a program asking football fans to wear all red

Marsing man faces federal gun charges

ATF warrant, search stem from May shotgun incident

A 57-year-old Marsing man was booked into Ada County Jail on federal charges last month.

Dewayne Everett Ensley was taken into custody after federal Alcohol Tobacco and Firearms agents and Owyhee County Sheriff's deputies served a federal warrant at his home on Joy Lane on Aug. 23.

According to information on www.vinelink.net, a judge released Ensley from custody in the days after his arrest.

Ensley faces a federal charge of possession of an illegal firearm and using it in anger, Sheriff Perry Grant said.

Grant said the federal warrant stemmed from the alleged use of an illegal firearm when Ensley and his neighbor had a confrontation on May 12.

Ensley allegedly fired a sawed-off shotgun while arguing over use of a roadway. During the May incident, Ensley accused his neighbors of frequently speeding down the shared road.

Grant also expects state charges filed, including felony controlled substance possession and misdemeanor drug paraphernalia possession. Investigators allegedly found four grams of methamphetamine and various pipes during the Aug. 23 search.

The sheriff said ATF agents confiscated all the weapons in Ensley's house during the search.

OCSO adds second K-9 deputy

Lab, SRO partner in east county schools

The county's new canine deputy was certified for a little more than two weeks when called into duty during the service of a federal warrant in Marsing.

Skye, the Labrador retriever partner of Owyhee County Sheriff's Deputy Lindsey Fuquay, helped out when OCSO personnel and Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms agents served a federal arrest warrant on Dewayne Everett Ensley on Aug. 23.

The action came after Fuquay and Skye had completed 160 hours of K-9 Academy training with the Nampa Police Department. The training ran from June 17 to July 31, and Fuquay and her partner passed the certification exam on Aug. 6.

Sheriff Perry Grant said Skye and Fuquay will be deployed primarily in the east end of the county where Fuquay serves as the Bruneau-Grand View School District school resource officer.

Skye, the newest Owyhee County Sheriff's Office K-9, will partner with Lindsey Fuquay. Submitted photo

Grant said, under the advice of former Nampa cop and OCSO deputy Rick Wiley, the sheriff's office bought Skye from the same Washington state kennel from which the county's other canine deputy was purchased.

While the dog cost $3,000, Grant said the Nampa K-9 Academy was free other than the salary Fuquay received for her time.

Asset forfeiture funds from drug seizures were used to purchase the animal, Grant said.

Grant said he would like to establish an OCSO K-9 program. At this point, Grand View resident Billy Wolfe continues to pay for the dog food and the veterinary bills for both dogs.

Skye is OCSO's second canine deputy. Deputy Jaime Wood, the office's other school resource officer, and Abby were recertified earlier this year, Grant said.

Toddler finds gun, shoots self

A 2½-year-old girl suffered a gunshot wound to the hand last week after she found a gun in the family's car in Grand View.

Owyhee County emergency dispatch received a call about the incident shortly before 3 p.m., on Aug. 27 as the parents tried to drive the child to the hospital.

Sheriff Perry Grant said the girl apparently found a 9mm Glock in the backseat of the family's gray 2015 Honda Accord.

Grant said the girl's parents were in front of the house when they heard a gunshot.

A member of the girl's extended family had apparently borrowed the vehicle a day earlier and left the gun in the car, Grant said.

Grant had no updates on the health of the girl, and he said the incident was still under investigation.

MSD focuses on keeping students safe during construction

New middle school, gym taking shape

Precautions ensuring student safety are the paramount concern as construction continues on the Marsing School District campus even with the advent of a new school year. The project, managed by Meridian-based Beniton Construction, is adhering to its timeline despite having to work around the daily traffic of students, faculty, and staff going about their business. “Everything is going as planned and on schedule,” Marsing schools superintendent Norm Stewart said. With so much activity occurring in a busy construction area, safety is always a concern for both students and staff, Stewart said.

“Beniton Construction has done a wonderful job at securing construction areas so that students and staff are safe,” he said. “We have construction fences up to keep everyone out of the area during student transition times.” Stewart said the safety measures and processes were in effect last year, so students were prepared for foot traffic redirection around and between district buildings for the current school year. “There have been no issues that I am aware of regarding students and their safety,” Stewart said.

“Both the school district and Beniton personnel are continually monitoring construction areas, and if areas of potential concern become known, those issues are dealt with in a quick fashion.” Stewart attends construction meetings at 10 a.m., every Thursday at the Beniton trailer on site. These meetings also include subcontractors and Design West Architects registered educational facilities planner James Coles. According to Stewart, the projects are still on target to be completed prior to the start of the 2019 school year. District patrons approved a $13.5 million construction bond in March 2017 to finance the multi-phase project that includes new construction of a middle school and high school gymnasium and the conversion of the old middle school into a new district office, among other elements. The comprehensive project is scheduled to wrap in the spring. Several steps in the construction have been completed, and more are nearing completion. The project to construct sidewalks down 8th Avenue West from Bosma Road to the Marsing Housing Authority was finished this summer. The sidewalk runs along the road in front of all three schools. The parking lot in front of the high school has been paved. A great deal of progress has been made with the new middle school. Drainage improvements and site utilities are near completion. The foundation is complete, and crews have nearly finished structural framing. The wood roof of the new middle school is near completion, too. The exterior walls of the high school gymnasium also have been erected.

DMV software problems compound long lines

County staff, customers “persevere” through Friday’s re-opening

The Owyhee County Division of Motor Vehicles offices were hit with a double-whammy that created long lines last week.

Assessor Toni Gruenwald said driver’s license services in the county’s three DMV branches closed between Aug. 28 and Thursday as officials tried to find a solution to the statewide software problems.

That compounded an issue that local DMV officers have dealt with as Canyon County residents have made it a habit to visit the Marsing branch to avoid perpetual long lines in Caldwell.

“The DMV offices were affected by the influx of out-of-county people. Before the system totally crashed, it was taking about 40 minutes to do one driver’s license,” Gruenwald said.

Gruenwald said people showed up from as far away as Star and told Owyhee DMV workers they had stood in line for three hours in Ada County.

“Unfortunately, we could not help a lot of these people either because our lines were so long,” she said.

DMV driver’s license services were available again Friday after county DMV staff received an hourlong training from the Idaho Transportation Department on Thursday.

Gruenwald called the training a “short-term fix,” and the going was rough Friday in Murphy and Marsing.

In a press release regarding the resumption of service, the governor’s office said ITD developed the interim solution that allows county DMV offices to issue licenses through a bypass of problems with the recently unveiled statewide software.

Officials warned that customers should still expect delays because of the adjustments county employees would have to make as well as a backlog of customers.

To address the backlog, the Idaho DMV has implemented an emergency extension through Oct. 31 for all Idaho drivers with licenses or identification cards that have expired or will expire between July and September.

Four folks were waiting for service when the Murphy office opened at 8:30 a.m., on Friday, Gruenwald said.

“The first person took over 1½ hours (to process),” she said. “The machine kept freezing and stating there were errors. When the DMV clerk called the ITD help desk, she was on hold for a little over 30 minutes.”

Another glitch had been discovered: Licenses requiring special endorsements like motorcycle or commercial seemed to confuse the software, which would freeze up.

The first two Murphy customers sought commercial driver’s licenses.

“The second person was at the counter almost 2½ hours,” Gruenwald said.

The assessor said the rest of the license processing went smoothly, and the Murphy office was able to remain open all day.

“We almost shut it down at noon because it had taken all morning to do two CDL licenses,” Gruenwald said. “However, we decided to persevere, and that is when we found out that the class D licenses seem to be running smoothly.”

At the Marsing office, where three of the staff stations have been able to process both driver’s licenses and vehicle registrations, the new fix caused problems.

Gruenwald said because the office’s camera has to be connected to the computer during license processing, only one of the three dual-purpose stations could be used for driver’s licenses Friday.

“Marsing has always only had one camera, and all three of the computers could talk to it,” she said. “Now only the one actually connected to (the camera) can talk to it, so this has slowed them down immensely.”

Late Friday, though, Marsing staffers reported “all in all it went OK,” Gruenwald said. “They had to call the help desk a couple of times and were put on hold for a while like us but said it wasn’t too bad.”

Other details for HHS’ Homecoming will be worked out at the school this week after class officer elections, school principal Matt Holtry said.

Typically, Homecoming week features a dress-up theme Monday through Thursday with each class earning points for participation.

More spirit points will be awarded during class competitions on Thursday, Sept. 13 prior to the Homecoming parade.

Beginning at 12:45 p.m., that day, freshmen, sophomores, juniors and seniors will face off inside the main gymnasium in boys’ volleyball, girls’ dodge ball, a dance competition and more.

The students will be released to line up for the Homecoming parade at 2:30 p.m.

in Murphy on Wednesday, Sept. 26.

From 6 p.m. to 8 p.m., inside Courtroom 1 of the county courthouse, 20381 State Hwy. 78, the county Planning and Zoning Commission will take citizens’ input and ideas regarding current land use zones, allowed uses and possible rezoning of land in the area.

People can drop in at anytime during the two-hour window.

The affected area pertains only to unincorporated Owyhee County and does not include any land inside city limits.

The process is similar to that which was carried out in the Homedale area earlier this year and led to proposed zoning ordinance changes that were vetted during a public hearing before the Board of County Commissioners after deadline on Tuesday.

For more information on the process, contact the Community Development Department at (208) 495-2095, ext. 2.

The P&Z commission will hold a public hearing on a conditional use permit application at 4 p.m., on Sept. 26 prior to the open house. The applicant wants to establish a single-family residence on a five-acre parcel in an agricultural zone on Birmingham Road outside Marsing.

A copy of the proposed project can be reviewed at the Community Development office in Murphy.

Water intake essential throughout entire year, throughout entire life

According to a research-study conducted by Columbia University, the brains of healthy older adults produce just as many new brain cells as younger adults. When researchers examined

Suriñe Greenway 28 people from ages 14 to 79, they found that the production of new brain cells remained steady across the ages. The limitations of this study are that they only studied 28 individuals throughout the life span.

When you consider that the population of Owyhee County is over 11,000, it truly puts into perspective how much they were restricting those that they examined.

Another huge factor within this study is the fact that they inspected brain tissue of deceased individuals. The team was examining brain tissue from individuals who had previously been healthy, but had died suddenly. While none of those examined had been diagnosed with dementia, or any neurological or psychiatric disorder, it still doesn't provide a thorough definition of what is considered "healthy."

University of Idaho Extension

Sometimes as individuals age, there are times that slight lapses in memory can occur and others may look in on the situation and say that it is because of their age. But we fail to ensure we are examining whether they are receiving all of the basic body needs: food, water and shelter. While sometimes we may think of drinking water more when the weather is warm outside, we can't send this to the back of our minds as we begin to enter cooler months.

Surprisingly, it's actually during the fall and winter months that individuals can disregard things such as drinking water (and enough of it!) as we think more about filling ourselves with the warm, caloric-rich comfort foods that we always seem to want seconds of.

Throughout this process, in a way we disregard the need to focus on our body's natural signals to us, indicating not what our bodies want, but actually need. Remember to take time each day, throughout the day to allow for water intake, and to make it a priority in your self-care.

Move over second helping of food, and make way for a second large glass of water.

Exams cost $15 each, and folks will be seen on a first-come, first-served basis.

BLM proposes new rec site outside Grand View

Perjue Canyon field tour, RAC meeting planned next week

A field tour is the first step in plans to create another federal recreation site in Owyhee County.

The Bureau of Land Management will play host to a tour on Thursday, Sept. 13 in the Perjue Canyon area near the Little Jacks Creek Wilderness.

The field tour will meet at the junction of Mud Flat Road and the Oreana Cutoff Road at 11:15 a.m. Anyone interested in attending the tour or needing additional information may contact BLM Bruneau Field Office manager Tanya Thrift at (208) 384-3300.

Perjue Canyon is proposed for recreation site development within the Bruneau Field Office of the BLM Boise District.

“This diverse landscape has so much to offer to the public in terms of spectacular vistas, homesteading history and a rugged wilderness experience at a location that is relatively close to Grand View,” BLM Outdoor Recreation Planner Casey Steenhoven said.

“We are looking forward to providing access and recreational and educational opportunities for all abilities at this site.”

The tour is the first step in the process to develop an environment assessment for the proposed rec site. The area is a Hands on the Land education site and has an existing trailhead off the Mud Flat Road Scenic Byway south of Grand View.

The BLM is considering options to develop the 10-acre parcel that could provide additional parking, camping sites, horseback riding opportunities and infrastructure options, such as shade shelters and picnic tables for local school field trips.

Upgrading the site to meet current accessibility standards and providing access for all abilities would be a key component of the proposal.

Through next week’s tour, the BLM aims to solicit feedback and recommendations from the public on the proposed development options and to identify issues to be addressed in the environmental assessment. The BLM will prepare an environmental assessment in the fall of 2018 to evaluate the impacts of the proposed project.

Boise RAC to meet

The BLM Boise District Resource Advisory Council (RAC) will meet from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., on Thursday, Sept. 13.

The public is welcome to attend the meeting, which will be held at the Boise District office, 3948 Development Ave., in Boise.

The RAC agenda includes the proposed Perjue Canyon recreation site field trip. Field office updates and a briefing on the district’s wild horse program also are planned.

For more information about the meeting, contact Holly Hovis at (208) 384-3393 or hhovis@blm.gov.

2 arrested on felony warrants

A 26-year-old Homedale man facing drug charges in Ada County has been served with a $75,000 warrant.

Jessie Ruiz remains in custody in Boise after his Aug. 18 arrest on felony and misdemeanor drug charges.

Owyhee County Sheriff Perry Grant said Ada County jailers discovered during booking that Ruiz had an outstanding warrant for failing to appear to answer for a felony controlled substance possession charge last year.

- Krista Hartley, 39, of Kimberly will be extradited from Twin Falls County after her arrest on a probation violation, Grant said.

A $25,000 warrant was issued after Hartley violated the terms of her probation stemming from a 2014 conviction for felony possession of stolen property.

Murphy boy joins atlatl alliance in Jordan Valley

The inaugural event for an ancient skill brought veterans and rookies alike to Jordan Valley.

Glenn Fretwell, the host and organizer of the High Desert Atlatl Throw and International Standard Accuracy Contest (ISAC), is in his 70s and has been throwing for two years.

George Reed is 14 and has been throwing a few months.

The Owyhee country contingent competed against Caldwell's RayDean Mount and Bob Kitch from Husum, Wash., during Friday's first ISAC.

The High Desert event also featured demonstrations for folks wanting to learn the aboriginal skill of throw a spear with a hand launcher as well as Fretwell's flintknapping.

The ISAC continued daily through Tuesday, but few probably could top what Fretwell pulled off in his backyard (literally) on Friday's opening day.

He scored 40 points in five throws standing 15 meters away from the target, and then racked up the day's only bulls-eye and another 33 points from 20 meters out.

Fretwell scored 73 and was runner-up to Kitch's 82 on the first day.

Mount came in at 63.

Reed scored 39 points, pulling off a nine-point throw for each of the distances.

In his mission to grow the sport, Fretwell mentored Reed, a Melba High School freshman, for the event.

"This kid was amazing to watch, and I think it is very cool to see young people taking up a specialized, unique, rare event like this," said Jordan Valley resident Tara Echave, who served as The Owyhee Avalanche's correspondent and photographer for the opening day at Oxbow Trailer Park.

Reed is son of Malheur County Sheriff's deputy David Reed and grandson of Jordan Valley resident Ellen Reed.

His grandfather is the late

George Reed, who was a backcountry deputy for the Owyhee County Sheriff's Office. George was known to embrace history as well as a Civil War re-enactment artist and the owner of a vintage, armed World War II Jeep that he and his son drove to D-Day remembrances.

The younger Reed's father also worked for OCSO.

Man who hid drugs in clothes sent to state pen

Payette woman has chance to avoid prison

A California man who brought copious amounts of illicit drugs into the Owyhee County Jail last year will spend up to 10 years in state prison. Marcel Miguel Clark was sentenced on Aug. 24 in Murphy. Clark's appearance before Third District Judge Thomas W. Whitney came just three weeks shy of the one-year anniversary of his arrest on U.S. Highway 95 south of Marsing. Whitney imposed a sentence of five years in Idaho penitentiary with another five years indeterminate. Clark also must pay nearly $11,000 in fines and court costs. The Sacramento resident was convicted on felony charges of drug trafficking, possession or manufacture of a controlled substance with the intent to deliver, and controlled substance possession. Clark was the passenger in a speeding vehicle that was pulled over on U.S. 95 early on the morning of Sept. 18. When Clark was booked into jail in Murphy, detention deputies found drugs concealed in his underwear: 39.3 grams of heroin, 14.4 grams of cocaine and 66½ hydrcodone pills. At the time, Owyhee County Sheriff's Chief Deputy Lynn Bowman said it was the largest amount of drugs seized at one time during 2017. The woman driving the vehicle in which Clark was a passenger, Ciara Mendez of Roseville, Calif., apparently is a fugitive from her charge of misdemeanor driving without privileges.

Payette woman placed on rider for drug conviction

Judge Whitney retained jurisdiction in another case for which he imposed sentencing on Aug. 24. Lucy Michelle Conour was placed in a rider program after her conviction for felony controlled substance possession. If the Payette resident successfully completes the program, she will avoid a prison sentence of up to seven years. Conour is responsible for fines and court costs of $735.50. She was arrested on July 2 and charged with felony drug possession and misdemeanors for possessing marijuana and drug paraphernalia. The two misdemeanor charges didn't appear on the amended charging document after Conour entered a guilty plea to the felony on Aug. 24. Conour's Owyhee County sentence will run concurrent with her punishment from a felony drug possession conviction in Canyon County. Third District Judge George Southworth on Aug. 6 also retained jurisdiction, but it's possible Conour could serve between 18 months and 30 months in state prison if her one-year rider is unsuccessful.

Trojans gang up on Mustangs in rout

Brown tops 100 yards receiving; Cornwall returns fumble for TD

Drew Deal is no longer listed as a quarterback on the Homedale High School roster.
Melba's defense probably couldn't tell the difference Friday.
With coach Matt Holtry dialing up some razzle-dazzle, Deal completed both his pass attempts for touchdowns in Friday's 55-8 non-conference rout of the host Mustangs.

The season's first road game marked the Trojans' second consecutive 50-point game. Homedale has scored 50 or more points 16 times during Holtry's decade as coach.
Friday was the third time Homedale has scored 55 points against Melba since 2010, and marked the fifth time under Holtry in which the Trojans' offense has scored 50 or more points in back-to-back games.

A senior, Deal played a part in three touchdowns against the Mustangs.
Junior quarterback Daniel Uranga threw a 14-yard scoring pass to Deal in the first quarter.
Deal threw a pair of option passes for touchdowns later in the game.
In the second quarter, he took a handoff from Uranga and hit Nelson Lomeli on a 20-yard scoring pass.

After taking a lateral from Uranga, Deal and Carson Brown got together on a 39-yard TD pass.

Homedale's Randall posts PR in '18 debut

In the middle of a crowded cross country meet, Matthew Randall sent a message Thursday afternoon.
The Homedale High School junior leader may have designs on his strongest season yet after posting a personal-best 17-minute, 52.23-second 5-kilometer showing at the Caldwell Twilight.
Although Randall's time was 41st-best among a slew of large-school competitors, it shows that he's poised to make a strong run at his third consecutive 3A state meet.
Homedale finished 20th out of 21 scoring teams in the boys' varsity 5K. Other Trojans in the field included:

• Ricky Soto, sr. — 20:18.23

• Christian Schalk, jr. — 21:15.33
• Ryker Johnson, fr. — 23:32.22

Antelopes rally in wild opener

by Mike Weber
For the Owyhee Avalanche
DUFUR, Ore. — In its season opener, the Adrian/Jordan Valley High School football team trailed by 18 points in the third quarter and gave up 76 points overall.
Under normal circumstances, that would add up to a loss.
But not on Friday. The Antelopes pulled off an 82-76 victory over Lowell in the 18th annual Eight Man Classic at Dufur High School.

"The boys adjusted well and made a good comeback," second-year coach Bill Wortman said. "We knew that we could keep scoring, but I didn't think that we would continue scoring the way we did."
"Our offensive line really stepped up big. We made some solid adjustments on defense, and we made some personnel changes, too, that helped us pull out the win. We had some really crucial stops on defense at the end of the game that really kind of sealed it for us."

Junior Michael Babcock scored six touchdowns on a series of long plays, including a 45-yard return of Devils' junior quarterback Taysian Williamson's interception 2 minutes, 14 seconds into the game.

Huskies sweep Liberty Charter

Team togetherness impresses new coach

Led by a trio of seniors, the Marsing High School volleyball team opened the 2018 season with a bang on Aug. 28 against Liberty Charter from Nampa.
The Huskies finished off their non-conference visitors 25-19, 25-16, and 25-14 in front of an excited and raucous crowd. This is the second consecutive year Marsing has opened the season with a win. The host Huskies beat Payette, 25-22, 25-17, 18-25, 25-18, to open the 2017 campaign.

Senior outside hitter Gabriela Rodriguez led the way for the Huskies with six kills and six aces.
"Individually, I was very impressed with our serve receive," first-year coach Brittany Regli said. "We've been working tirelessly on that in practice, and it is paying off."
Senior Hailee Bennett was aggressive at the net and led the team with four blocks.

✓ Antelopes: Late-game defensive heroics hold off desperate Devils

with 4:33 left — gave the Antelopes (1-0) an 82-64 lead and helped hold off the Devils’ late rally.

“It’s very important to win your first game because it helps you develop a winning attitude and provides your team with confidence,” Babcock said.

Babcock also scored on runs of 55, 45, 55 and 37 yards. He had 312 yards rushing, more than half of the team’s 606 total offensive yards.

Freshman quarterback Conley Martin completed five of 12 passes for 134 yards and two touchdowns.

Senior Zeke Quintero led the defense with 16 tackles, and Wes Bayes added 10. Wade Bond notched 12 tackles.

The seesaw contest featured seven lead changes between the two 2017 Oregon state playoffs participants.

Thirteen seconds after Lowell (0-1) tied the game, 8-8, Adrian/Jordan Valley junior Wade Bond galloped upfield on a 70-yard kickoff return.

Eleven seconds after Lowell had built a 22-14 advantage 1:28 into the second quarter, Babcock burst up the middle for a 55-yard score.

On the Devils’ next possession, Bond scooped up a fumble and ran 46 yards for a 28-22 lead.

The Devils went back on top, 30-28, on senior Tyson Brasfield’s 46-yard run with 7:07 left.

The exciting offensive shoot-out continued when Babcock’s 65-yard run put the Antelopes back in front, 34-30, with 6:18 left in the half.

Lowell regained the momentum just 24 seconds later on Williamson’s 50-yard scramble and would maintain the advantage until early in the fourth quarter.

The turning point came after Lowell widened its lead to 52-34 early in the second half.

The Antelopes mounted an impressive comeback with back-to-back scoring drives covering just 2:29.

After freshman quarterback Conley Martin fired a 60-yard TD pass to Bond, the Antelopes defense stopped the Devils on fourth down.

Martin scrambled up the middle for a 32-yard TD with 6:51 left in the third.

Lowell marched 91 yards to get some breathing room, 58-50, at the end of the quarter.

But 16 seconds into the final period, the Antelopes tied the game, 58-58. Bond fired a 65-yard TD pass to sophomore Clay Ready, and Babcock added the go-ahead conversion.

Babcock then scrambled away from defenders on a 55-yard run.

With 8:27 left, the Antelopes held a 66-58 edge, their first lead since midway through the second quarter.

“Our offense was really clicking good today, and we came back with a strong comeback in the second half, which really made us feel pretty good,” senior receiver Zeke Quintero said. “We just wanted to come back in the second half and play with a higher energy level to get the win.”

Two plays after recovering the onside kick, Babcock scored on a 37-yard run.

Eighteen seconds later, Lowell shrunk the Adrian/Jordan Valley lead to 74-64.

But the Antelopes took control with a four-play, 59-yard drive that trimmed 2½ minutes off the clock. Babcock scored on a 44-yard run.

“Michael has improved a lot, and he’s able to break tackles better now, which was something that he just couldn’t do very well last year. His weight training and conditioning have really paid off for him,” Wortman said.

“Martin is a great player, too, and he sure doesn’t play like a freshman. Wade Bond had a great game, too, and we just have lots of great kids on our team.”

The Devils weren’t done, though.

Lowell scored on the kickoff return then recovered an Antelopes fumble.

Williamson’s 30-yard pass to Brian Lemon pulled the Devils to within a TD, 82-76, with 1:54 left.

Lowell recovered an onside kick and had a shot at the win, but the Antelopes’ defense showed up one last time.

Senior defensive lineman Cole Kennedy-Gooch sacked Williamson then Quintero batted away a fourth-down “Hail Mary” pass.

“I saw an opening and I knew that I had a good chance for a sack,” Kennedy-Gooch said. “... I knew that I had to do something big, and I felt like I had enough energy to do that.”

The Antelopes open the Special District 3 season at Crane on Friday. The Mustangs prevailed, 42-14, last year, handing Adrian/Jordan Valley one of its two losses in an 8-2 campaign.

✓ Trojans: Melba’s early lead dissippates during Homedale’s barrage

two touchdown passes for Homedale (2-0).

Uranga threw three touchdown passes, including a 17-yarder to Jake Collett to close the game’s first drive.

Melba (0-2) answered quickly and took the lead, 8-6, when Easton Bunnell scored on an 8-yard run and followed that with the go-ahead two-point conversion run with 7 minutes, 52 seconds left in the first quarter.

The Trojans turned the ball over on downs to end their second possession then reeled off six touchdowns over their next six possessions.

Uranga heaved a 41-yard TD pass to Brown, and Deal throw the PAT pass to Spencer Fisher to put Homedale back in front, 14-8, with 3:31 left in the first quarter.

After gaining 63 yards on its first possession, Melba managed just 77 total yards over its final eight possessions.

Homedale’s defense forced one three-and-out, three punts, and three turnovers.

Senior linebacker Nathan

Cornwall returned the first of those turnovers — Melba quarterback Dallin Forsgren’s fumble — 53 yards for a touchdown 5:40 before halftime.

Jesse Martinat recovered another fumble in the second quarter, and Garrett Elordi picked off Forsgren to end Melba’s final possession of the contest.

Homedale, meanwhile, didn’t turn the ball over and racked up 431 yards total offense.

Uranga connected on 12 of his 18 pass attempts for 178 yards and four touchdowns.

Brown caught five passes for 105 yards and two TDs.

Mason Kincheloe led the Trojans’ ground game with 96 yards, but didn’t score until his 2-yard carry for Homedale’s final touchdown in the third quarter.

Collett had 40 rushing yards on four attempts, and Hayden Kincheloe piled up 50 yards.

Forsgren 58 yards through the air, including a 36-yard completion to Scott Martinez one play before Bunnell’s touchdown.

Bunnell had 68 yards rushing, and Martinez added 47 on the ground.

Abe Riley had six solo tackles and two assists for the Mustangs’ defense, while Bunnell led the effort with eight solo stops — including one tackle for loss — and four assists.

Homedale’s defensive contributions were spread out.

Dominic Quijano led the way with two solo tackles and three assists. Gage Northrup helped out on three tackles, and Spencer Fisher had a solo tackle and three assists.

✓ Rimrock: Program plans to play host to the Rusty Fender meet again team where the athletes push themselves and support their teammates even when their coach is not around.”

Hazen is heading up both levels of cross country at Rimrock, taking over from Dale Burk.

“Coach Burk developed a great team. Despite our small numbers we had a runner at state last year and I anticipate we’ll have at least that again this year,” Hazen said.

“Thanks to the work that he and the runners put in, I am taking over a group of very motivated and self-sufficient athletes that will succeed in spite of my newness to coaching.”

The science and culinary arts teacher has one senior — state meet qualifier Ray Draper — and three juniors returning to the high school team.

Hazen remains optimistic about the Raiders program even though no new athletes joined the high school team.

“I think Rimrock has got a great future in cross country,” Hazen said. “Our high school team is small, but there is a lot of heart and talent.

“We’ve got a larger middle school team that is looking really strong. I anticipate Rimrock will be a strong presence in cross country not only this year, but for several years to come.”

Rimrock will play host tthe Rusty Fender meet for both high school and middle school runners on Oct. 5.

Rounding out the high school team are D-O Draper, Adam Hogaboam and Ian Burbank.

Draper finished 27th in the Valley Invitational on Thursday. He ran the 5 kilometers in Hazelton in 20 minutes, 36.5 seconds.

Hazen anticipates Draper’s return to the 1A state meet.

“Ray made it last year, and with it being his senior year, he is particularly motivated to see his high school running career out on a high note,” she said.

Draper was the only Rimrock athlete listed in meet results posted to www.athletic.net.

The middle school team also opened the season at the Valley Invitational.

Unlike the high school squad, the middle-schoolers are a mix of returners and runners taking their first shot at Rimrock cross country glory.

There are two eighth-graders coming back — Ella Boren and Cooper Raymond — for a team that also includes Melissa Raymond as assistant coach.

Returning seventh-graders include Bryn Burk, Joslyn Burk, Lisbeth Ayala, Garrett Kunsy and Loyd Boren.

“All returning athletes have shown marked improvement over the start of the season last year, and I anticipate many new PRs (personal records,” Hazen said.

Led by Ella Boren’s championship time of 11:20.2 over the 2,500-meter course, the Raiders girls finished sixth at the Valley Invitational.

“Ella was in the top 15 at districts last year, and with the spirit she’s shown so far this season she’ll be even better this year,” Hazen said.

Joslynn Burk was 21st at 13:25.2, and newcomer Ashton Moore — a seventh-grader — was 36th. Another first-year runner, Cristal Araujo, finished in 15:49.1.

Ayala ran a 15:16.5, right in front of teammate Bryn Burk (15:21.3).

On the boys’ side, Loyd Boren was 11th in 10:40.5.

Cooper Raymond crossed the line in the 21st position (11:42.4), while sixth-grader Carson Raymond made his debut with a 12:24.7 run.

Kunsy covered the course in 14:00.3. — JPB

Mayor names new police chief

Ron Roberson, a 20-year veteran of city and county law enforcement in Eastern Idaho, is officially Homedale’s new police chief.

The city council ratified Roberson’s appointment Aug. 31st in a special meeting.

Roberson, 43, cut his teeth in policing in Twin Falls where he’s lived for the past 25 years, and where he started his career as a patrolman in 1972.

Over the years, he’s added investigator with the Twin Falls County Sheriff and county director of juvenile probation to his resume. Until June of 1992 he was a detective-sergeant with the Twin Falls Police Department.

For different reasons, some of them personal, Roberson resigned from the police department.

“I just wanted to do more than just work at the time,” he said.

Single, with kids grown up and moved away, he traveled extensively for a year, before deciding he wanted back in law enforcement. The chief opening in Homedale offered him the opportunity to live in a small town.

Trojans drop non-conference opener 28-12

A Homedale team that looked a little rough around the edges met a Weiser squad quick to capitalize on mistakes Friday night.

The result: The Trojans’ much ballyhooed 24-0 winning streak lurched to a halt with a non-conference loss to A-2 Weiser 28-12.

At Weiser, the Wolverines took an early 14-0 lead, capping a turf-churning ground game with a 30-yard strike in the air.

Homedale came back with a series of three plays early in the second period, beginning with a clutch pass play from quarterback Luke Hays to Tony Bicandi for 15 yards, and finishing with a Brandon Rountree run across the goal line.

With the score, Homedale edged closer, 14-6 at the half.

Homedale put one more TD, a fluke, on the boards late in the third quarter.

Hays hefted a pass to Ryan Hellwege. The ball bounced off Wolverine Danny Walker, who nearly had the interception, and landed in Hellwege’s arms for a 75-yard Homedale score.

Local receives medal honoring WWI service

Veteran George VanDerhoff was in Chicago recently to mark the 75th anniversary of this country’s involvement in WWI.

Vanderhoff, 94, the senior vice commander of the state of Idaho, attended the function Aug. 28 to Sept. 1.

Some 111 WWI veterans joined the ranks of fellow veterans to receive a “75th Anniversary Commemorative Medal, a Grateful Nation Remembers 1918-1993” from the Robert R. McCormick Tribune Foundation.

Of the 4.7 million men and women who served in WWI, 35,000 remain, including 1,400 women.

Presenting the medals to each veteran was Jesse Brown, secretary of veteran’s affairs, and Gen. Gordon Sullivan, chief of staff.

These veterans of WWI, now in their 90s and older, had been designated as the only official national commemoration of the 75th anniversary of the end of WWI, Nov. 11, 1918.

Cheers to ring in new stadium at grid opener

Homedale’s new football field, complete with lights and stadium, is ready for the opening game Friday night between the Trojans and McCall-Donnelly.

Marsing Job Corps workers, school officials, coaches and local citizens have all volunteered their services to complete the bleachers and press box in time for the first game.

The Idaho Power Company crew rushed the lighting project to completion the first of last week, and surprised everyone with the speed in which the job was done.

Work has gone forward all spring and summer on the 11½-acre athletic field complex which lies just north of the high school facing the Snake River near the Homedale boat docks and just east of the Riverside park.

Improvements have included the building of a regulation track, turfing and sprinkling the football field, graveling the track and parking lot, much of this being with volunteer labor and equipment furnished by city, county, Gem Irrigation District and others.

The Bureau of Reclamation is financing the cost of constructing a 60-foot bleacher with a seating capacity of 500 people. The bleachers are ten seats high, (twenty feet in height) and will be completely closed in with plywood to enable the storing of equipment under the bleachers. There will be cement sidings along the bleachers to lead to a permanent concession stand. On top of the concession stand, a press box has been built. Workers from the Marsing Job Corps have been working on this bleacher project through the summer. It is a federally funded project totaling up to $3,500. The Job Corps is also planning to construct a six-foot steel chain link fence around the field.

MISS LESLIE FUJISHIN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Fujishin of Homedale, was recently selected as the outstanding “Girl of the Year” of the Job’s Daughters, Bethel No. 31, Homedale. This special recognition was awarded to Miss Fujishin for the second consecutive year.

Homedale Locals

Mrs. Irene Fry, Martinez, Calif., mother of Mrs. Gordon Cahill, has moved to Homedale.

Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Slawson of Phoenix, Ariz., and Cecilia of Los Angeles, Calif., visited friends here during the Labor Day vacation.

Sharon Travis wins ribbons at Owyhee Fair

Sharon Travis, four-year member of the Homedale Livestock club of which Max Orr is leader, won the Reserve Grand Champion showmanship award at the Owyhee County Fair with her blue ribbon fat lamb. She also won blue ribbon in the Senior Division and Grand Champion showmanship ribbon in sheep, and the sheep showmanship trophy given by Pat Shaffer.

In her dairy project, she won showmanship blue ribbon for third year and over, and the Statesman trophy for showman, third year and over. She also won the production trophy for her herd of Holstein cows.

Her agricultural illustrated talks and demonstrations on “The Dairymen’s Most Expensive Disease” won the Senior Division trophy donated by Dr. and Mrs. Ronald Pottenger.

Failed to Corrupt Him.

The most disgraceful act that ever emanated from a President of the United States, was that in which Rutherford B. Hayes figured in writing a letter to Judge Nicholas Longworth, of Cincinnati, advising him to be a candidate for Congress in the First District of Ohio, wherein he tells the Judge: “If elected, you would find a term in Washington very enjoyable, and not without great advantage to you.” To his praise and everlasting credit be it said that the gentleman thus addressed spurned the debased proposition, and in the course of a letter in reply addressed to the President used the following, among other excellent reasons, for not acting upon the advice thus tendered him: “I do not think that one who holds a judicial office should mix in politics, or accept any honors or offices, even though offered without his asking. The constitution provides ‘that no Judge of the Supreme Court, or Court of Common Pleas, shall hold any other office of profit or trust, under the authority of this State, or of the United States,’ and although plain that the State has no power, nor did it intend, to render any person ineligible to Congress who is eligible under the supreme law of the land, yet I cannot avoid the belief that the intention of the Constitution is to remove from Judges the chances of preferment and the hope of honors and reward. The man whose high duty it is to judge the people in matters involving property, liberty and life should never be the servant or candidate of any party or faction. When he mounts the tribune he should put behind him pleasure, wealth, pride and the hope of attaining anything beyond the approval of honest men and of his own conscience.” In this manly and unanswerable argument Judge Longworth hit the nail right squarely on the head. It is a great misfortune for the country, when so much corruption and dishonesty mark every phase of public life, that there are not men in exalted stations who are possessed of the firmness, purity and honesty that seem to actuate this Ohio Judge in the discharge of his duties. The proceeding reveals in all its naked deformity the hideous and narrow-minded imbecility of the man who is at present presiding over the destinies of this country, and for such an act of interference, so grossly at variance with the duties of his high position, he deserves the scorn and contempt of all right-minded and impartial men.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE

Local Political Notes. – There was a lively time at the Democratic Primaries on Saturday. It reminded many of the good old times. The ardent seemed to flow freely whichever way you turned.

Judge Drew, we understand, is a candidate for Auditor and Recorder on the Republican ticket.

Tom Cahalan returned to Boise City on Sunday. Although he didn’t secure the Owyhee delegation to aid him in his aspirations for Congress, he made a creditable run. Tom has a great many friends here.

Considerable unanimity was manifested at the primary election in the new Florida precinct.

George W. Gilmore is a candidate for the nomination for Sheriff on the Republican ticket. George ought to be able to make a pretty good race.

Charley UMBER is working energetically for the nomination for Auditor and Recorder on the Democratic ticket.

The Dewey ticket swept Florida Precinct with a rush on Saturday — forty votes against two for Cahalan.

On the edge of common sense Labor Day on the farm

Labor Day was created by unions to recognize the American worker. It did not include ranching and farming; if they did it would destroy the ability of a farmer to get a loan. If a farmer included the cost of his daily labor on a financial statement, no banker could find a way to show a profit. But things have changed. “Haying” used to be a full-time job for teens in the summer. Tossing bales onto a flat-bed, stacking them on the truck, hauling them back to the hay yard or the barn, throwing bales off and restacking them. It was always hot, sticky, scratchy, sweaty and hard. But if you were on the football team in high school you’d finish the last cutting with money in the bank and muscles like Arnold Schwarzenegger! Oh, and the suntan was free.

Fast-forward to today. Teenagers in farm communities now have to go to the gym all summer to get in shape. Because one farmer with a round baler, a self-propelled inline bale wrapper, and a tractor with a bale spear can do the work of a full teenage hayin’ crew in half the time.

One of the most labor-intensive chores on the ranch is building fence. I worked for a big outfit that had several large ranches with miles of fence. We had a four-man crew. They would set the corners and the brace posts with posthole diggers and tamping bars. The roll of barbed wire would be strung out, carried by two men often walking for miles when the country was too rough to drive along the fence line. Then the wire was stretched and the steel posts were driven in the ground with a 15-pound post pounder every 20 or so feet. Stays and clips were spun on to finish. Sometimes they could do a mile a day.

Today we have a tractor with a posthole digger on the three-point hitch and a post pounder (or pusher in places where it rains). For those who still want to “rough it,” there is the hand-held hydraulic post driver.

How about the old days of chopping weeds in the row crops? I remember the Bracero Program along the Mexican border where workers legally came into the U.S. to chop weeds, hand-plant and harvest crops. The U.S. government stopped the program because it was supposedly taking work from able-bodied Americans. The very next year every cotton farmer in the Rio Grande Valley had bought a McCormick cotton-picking machine. Now we spray for weeds or use genetically modified crops that resist insects, weeds and disease. When I was a lad, we milked one cow. It supplied butter and milk for our family. Most farmers kept five to 10 milk cows. It took an hour or two every morning. It was the longest part of “doing the chores.” Farmers sold their milk and cream or traded it for goods. Even today in highly automated dairies milking thousands of cows, it is still an intensive, hands-on part of agriculture. The only thing they don’t have to do is milk them!

There are many more examples of the amount of “labor” required in farming and ranching, then and now, but it is that last one that comes to mind. On my wall is a painting of my grandfather walking from the “cooling room” (where the fresh milk was kept in running water to stay cool) carrying a bucket to the pump at the windmill. Then he would walk back and feed the hogs, scatter grain to the chickens, turn the draft horses out, then up to the house for breakfast. If they painted that picture today, he would be on his four-wheeler and probably weighing another 20 pounds!

Eyes on Owyhee History and lessons

Matt Holtry has started his 10th season at the helm of the Homedale High School football program.

It began, fittingly, on the field the Vallivue High School graduate has chosen as his coaching home.

And, for a man who is keen on milestones — and specifically the Trojan road that is littered with the markers — Holtry began his 10th year on the opening night of the golden anniversary season for the stadium in which his efforts and those of his 10 teams have rekindled fans’ dreams of past and future glory.

(By the way, Friday night marks 50 years and one day since the Trojans played their first game at the riverside venue — in retrospect, an apropos 52-0 whitewash of McCall-Donnelly for the team’s 16th consecutive victory; unfortunately, there won’t be a home game on the golden anniversary week because the current crop of players are on the road in Baker, Ore.).

Holtry would be the first to tell you that he hasn’t reached the heights of the stadium’s namesake — Deward Bell, who revived the HHS program’s championship heart in the 1950s and ’60s.

But there are lessons — about Holtry’s impact, and the program’s recent success — nonetheless.

- In the years since Holtry became coach in 2009, HHS fans have witnessed the program’s 450th and 500th all-time victories.

- When Holtry stepped on the Deward Bell Stadium turf on Aug. 24 to face New Plymouth, he officially became the second-longest tenured coach in Homedale history.

He surpassed Darryl Kellum, the program’s second-winningest coach (92-13), who was in charge from 1973 to 1981.

Holtry is second in service to the Trojans sword and shield only to Jim McMillan, the most successful coach in Trojans history. In 13 seasons between 1982 and 1994, Coach Mac won 104 more games than he lost (125-21-0) and — along with Kellum — was part of a school-record 10

From Washington Protecting nation against security threats from foreign bad actors

Recently, the president signed into law the John S. McCain 2019 National Defense Authorization Act, or NDAA, fulfilling one of Congress’s most serious responsibilities to provide for and protect our nation’s military servicemembers. This legislation will strengthen our military’s readiness, provide our troops a pay raise, support effective implementation of the National Defense Strategy, drive further innovation in emerging technologies to secure our military advantage, and continue to reform the U.S. Department of Defense.

One of the NDAA’s most important provisions was legislation to reform the Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States (CFIUS). The CFIUS is an interagency committee that reviews certain foreign investment transactions for national security implications. There was some concern that certain nations like China have attempted to use crafty investment arrangements with U.S. companies in order to gain access to critical technologies vital to our national security. The CFIUS panel investigates and determines whether such investments by a foreign company pose a national security risk and can send its findings and a recommendation to the president, who has the power to postpone or disapprove the deal. For example, last fall, the U.S. rejected the acquisition of Lattice Semiconductor by a Chinese consortium because of national security concerns over potential transfer of valuable intellectual property, according to press reports.

The last time the CFIUS committee underwent any sort of reform was in 2007. The foreign investment and national security landscape has changed significantly over the past decade, as have the types of investments that pose the greatest risk. There have been growing national security concerns over foreign exploitation of investment-driven critical technology transfers, particularly where those deals are structured as joint ventures or early-stage, minority investments, which traditionally have largely fallen outside of CFIUS jurisdiction.

To remedy this problem, members of Congress introduced legislation to expand CFIUS’s jurisdiction and authorities to address today’s national security concerns, which stretch beyond mergers and acquisitions resulting in control of a company, particularly from China and other nations. The Senate Banking Committee, which I chair, unanimously passed this legislation earlier this year. As the House of Representatives had passed its own version of the bill, we engaged

Getting out of credit card debt is about changing behavior

Dear Dave,
How do you feel about taking money out of savings to pay off credit cards?
— Peggy

Dear Peggy,
I'm OK with this under two conditions. One is that you cut up the credit cards, close the accounts, and never use those things again. The second is that you don't wipe out your savings in the process. Leave something in there, so you're covered in the event of an emergency. Then, rebuild your savings as fast as possible once the debt is out of your way.
You have to understand, too, that credit cards aren't the problem. The credit card debt isn't the problem, either. They are just symptoms of buying things you don't need, with money you don't have, in order to impress people.

Take a long look in the mirror, Peggy, because the person who's looking back at you is the problem. Overspending, disorganization, not earning enough ... whatever label you want to slap on this situation, you are the reason for the problem. Once you understand and accept that, and you start living on a budget and staying away from debt, you'll have taken your first real steps toward financial peace!
— Dave

Dear Dave,
I'm 35, single, and I have no dependents. Do I need a life insurance policy?

— Larry

Dear Larry,
In your situation, if you have enough cash saved up to pay your final expenses — and you don't have any debt — there's no reason for you to carry a life insurance policy. No one will be harmed financially by your death, and no one would be deprived of the income that would be lost if something unexpected happened to you. Even if you have a mortgage on a home, the house will normally sell for enough to pay off the mortgage.

However, if you have debt, or if you don't have some money stashed away in savings, you might want to consider an inexpensive term life insurance policy. At your age, if you're healthy, you can get $100,000 worth of coverage for just $10 to $15 a month.

Remember, you don't buy insurance to leave an inheritance. You buy life insurance to make sure there's enough money to take care of your family and final expenses. You wouldn't want your parents or someone else having to foot the bill!

Holtry has a long way to go to catch up with the ghosts of the Trojans' past, but in his own ethereal way he has forged his own legacy.
• He was on the sidelines for wins No. 450 and 500 in Trojans' history.
• His 54 career wins are third behind the aforementioned giants.
• Homedale teams have played state playoff games in seven of his first nine years, including 3A semifinal appearances in 2013 and 2015.
• The current streak of five consecutive postseason trips is tied for the second-longest in school history with the 1997-2001 run engineered by Greg Asbury and Stan Hoaglund. Of course, it's half as long as the 1979-88 success when Kellum and McMillan ran the show.
• The signature of Holtry's tenure is high-powered offenses, which is ironic for a guy who made his bones as a defensive back at McPherson College in Kansas and later Boise State University.
There have been several games in which the victor

— yes, sometimes not Homedale — has scored 50 or more points.
About 30 percent of the Trojans' games under Holtry (26) has seen a team walk away with a victory margin of 40 points or more.
Homedale squads have won 20 of those games.
The 2018 Trojans have rocketed out of the gate with a pair of big victories (50-0 vs. New Plymouth and 55-8 vs. Melba), so there are also lessons in sportsmanship and understanding the rules of the high school game.
The Idaho School Activities Association follows National Federation of High Schools football rules when it comes to runaway games.
National rules require a mercy rule when a team is ahead by 40 or more points.
Under the mercy rule, the game clock will run continuously except for injury timeouts, team timeouts or scores.
In Idaho, Class 3A schools — like Homedale — will invoke the mercy rule at the beginning of the fourth quarter.
To some, seeing the clock continue to tick down after an incomplete pass or first down may seem unnatural or even unfair to players on both sides. The leading team has fewer minutes to develop younger players, and the trailing squad has less time to mount a comeback.

But the mercy rule is there to protect the players — from themselves and their opponents.
With a large point differential, complacency or frustration could set in, depending on which end of the score a particular player finds himself.
Regular game stoppages in this situation could lead to more opportunities for injuries either from leading players letting up or trailing athletes taking out their frustration with borderline roughness.
And, teenage boys being who they are, altercations and all-out brawls wouldn't be out of the question.
Though perhaps rare, all those scenarios are a reality even under the best of conditions and intentions from game officials and coaches.
But as long as Homedale's season of success persists under Matt Holtry, winning and winning big — and the euphoric paradise and unfortunate pitfalls thereof — must be endured in a sporting way.

The new law improves the CFIUS process by enabling review of certain minority investments, including those involving critical technology, critical infrastructure, and sensitive personal data. It also, importantly, updates the export control system to address the transfer of emerging and foundational technologies that could be detrimental to U.S. national security. It ensures that modernization of the rules surrounding CFIUS-oriented transactions and export controls preserves the open investment climate necessary to promote future U.S. innovation against the heightened United States national security concerns faced today. CFIUS's new authorities will ensure that it is equipped to handle emerging threats from China and other bad actors, while keeping America's doors open to investment.

The bill signed into law was the result of months of bipartisan, bicameral and cross-government efforts to appropriately tailor and modernize CFIUS and export control authorities to ensure the continued protection of U.S. national security, while promoting foreign investments in the U.S. It represents a very serious, bipartisan effort to ensure that our critical technologies are safeguarded, while preserving important free-market principles and an open foreign investment environment.
